GO AGAIN

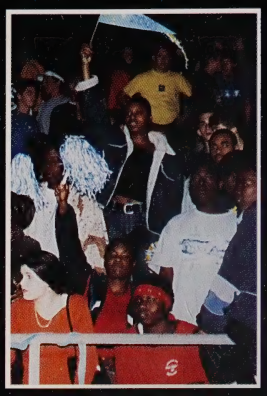
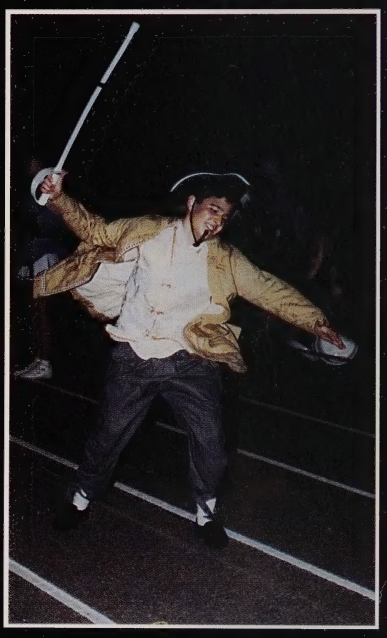
Reliving the popular television series "Charlie's Angels", Dee Dee Horne, Ashley Abraham, and Jamie Lance are surrounded by Clarine Barnes, Catherine Wisnieswskie, Alicia Porter, Chris Rivard, Tim Gaster, April Dingman and Dare Wilhiem. The release of the "Charlie's Angels" Movie in November became an instant hit with the students.

HERE WE





GO AGAIN

Taking advantage of the ocean breezes, Nathan King uses his entire body to guide his craft. Nathan enjoyed windsurfing at St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands during his summer vacation.

I'll remember you

Sr. Prom Graduation

Seniors showed up at the 52nd Street Ramada Inn in an array of colorful outfits, ready for a fun-filled night of dance. After months of preparation, the senior's were finally able to strut their stuff at the bash of the year-the Senior Prom.

The last graduating class of the millennium received their diplomas on June 18, 2000 at the Virginia Beach Pavilion.

Slapping a high five, Jonathan Kim shares his graduation pride with Mr. Thompson. Jonathan was active in the theatre and Mr. Thompson participated often in various plays with the students.

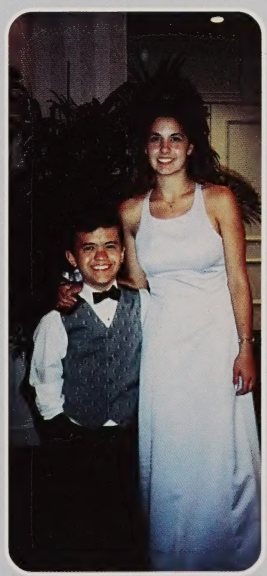
Eagerly awaiting their futures, the soon-to-be graduates watch and listen to the speakers of the ceremony. Students, teachers, and guest speakers made presentations at graduation hoping to influence the lives of the graduates..

Giving her speech, Valedictorian Shayna Kessel says her goodbyes and shares some words of inspiration. Several other prominent students delivered speeches at the ceremony giving advice and recalling memories.

Enjoying picture time at Harlan Hendricks' house, these students gather for a final photo before dinner. Afterwards, they piled into the limo and experienced a night of fun.

All dressed in red and white, John Almaguar and Diana Eballar prepare to leave for the Senior Prom. Several couples chose to match each others formal-wear for this special event.

Dancing to the D.J.'s music at the Ramada Inn, the Seniors of 2000 boogie the night away. Seniors enjoyed the variety of music throughout the night.



Good Friends

Smiling for the camera, Jonathan Kim and his date, Ashley Kuhnhardt hold each other close. The prom was an emotional time for many seniors, knowing that they would not see many of their friends after graduation. "The prom was nice and I had a good time."

-Jonathan Kim-

Millennium Magic

Jr. Prom Ring Dance

Planet Beach at Little Creek Amphibious Base was lit-up with lights and music as Junior Prom-goers pulled into the parking lot and entered the dance ready for an exciting night of food and fun. The room was filled with energy as students danced the night away, 'broke it down", partied, and "chilled out" with friends.

Excited about getting her class ring, Brooke Blanchard shows it off to Dr. Jessee and Sarah Lapierre. Juniors who purchased class rings received them upon arriving at the ring dance.

Renting the trolley as their transportation to the Ring Dance, Stephanie Green, Paige Slepsky, Sylvia O'Conner, Jenny Bell and their dates enjoy the unique ride. Several couples pitched in to share the expense and the fun of a memorable trip to Planet Beach.

Posing in their beautiful dresses, Alena Baisden, Katie Birdsong, Becca McLain, Jamie Todd, Mary Sue Kucta, and Jen Leonard spent all day prepping themselves for the big night. All the girls were happy to be spending this very special and wonderful night with their friends.

In the "limo" that they rented together, Travis Cheeks, Janie Larned, Brandon Monroe, Jen Leonard, John Almaguer, and Christina Bauza are psyched about riding to Junior Prom in style. Although limousines were very expensive, by splitting the cost they were more affordable for the students.

Working up a sweat, Bob Sinclair and Christy Nesselrode have fun dancing to Zoot Suit Boogie. Many students took swing dance lessons to be prepared for the 90"s swing music that would be played.

While his girlfriend, Lauren Cryan, is pinning the boutineer on his jacket, Nathan King, smiles big for the camara. Afterwards Nathan presented Lauren with a white wrist corsage.

The Limo Ride

On the way to pick up his date, Ryan Gore enjoys the spaciousness of the limo. Ryan and Diana Eballar, rode to dinner and the dance in style.
"I had a great time at Ring Dance. The best parts were dressing up, riding in the limo, hanging out with my friends, and partying all night long."
- Ryan Gore-

Into the heat with Summer Fun

When summer finally arrived, the main objective of most students was to have fun. Time was spent traveling, experiencing new activities, holding down summer jobs, and perfecting tans at the beach. Students might have spent their summer in a variety of different ways, but they all gained new memories to bring back to school in the fall.

Spending his summer in Cary, North Carolina, junior, Ben Liston, plays the trumpe with the "Tarheel Suns". This drum and bugle corps competed in various parades an competitions throughout the Midwest and the South.

Enjoying the breeze, seniors Lauren Cryan and Nathan King take some time to relax at St. Thomas. Lauren and Nathan took a three day sailing trip where they went island hopping in the Virgin Islands.

Chillin ' in the sun, Becca McLain, Jennifer Leonard and Janie Larned, spend their nights on the beach. The girls vacationed in Key Largo, Florida and enjoyed a nice get away from their hectic school lives.

Holding a sign in Times Square, Robert Lett stands outside the TRL studios hoping to get a glance of Carson Daly. Robert was determine to attract enough attention so he would get invited inside.

As he's pulled behind a boat, Adam Schmidt shows off his water skills. Adam participated in a wakeboarding tournament in Irving, Virginia where he successfully won first place.

Hawaii

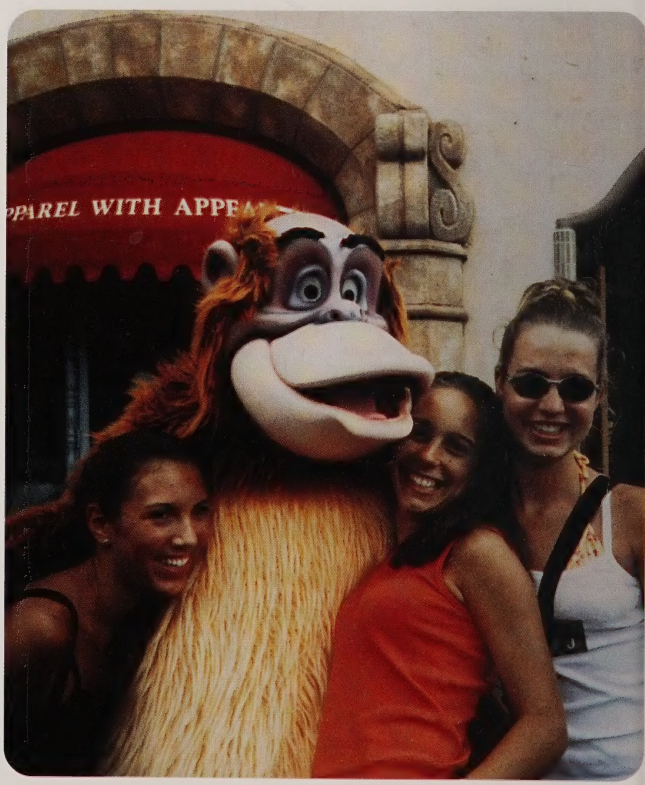
Donning her sunglasses, Jessica Klara arrives in Hawaii with bag in hand and headphones still on. Jessica and her family enjoyed a week long vacation in one of the world's most favorite spots. "The flight was long and tiring, but it was worth every minute because Hawaii was absolutely beautiful."

Sharing All Things with Best Friends

The companionship of a friend was regarded as one very important aspect of surviving high school. But other than school, a friend would many times share the same interests or even a week of vacation time. A best friend would gladly share all the good and bad experiences while growing up and still be there long after graduation.

Giving a late night hug, Sarah Rea holds Katie Stites while telling her jokes to mak her laugh. The two best friends spent a week of their vacation in Jacksonville, Florid together having fun staying up late and sight-seeing during the day.

At Young Life Camp in Saranac, New York, Taylor Ewing, Pat "Skippy" Clark, Kristen Kenney, and Brian Jones, step aside from the fun to take a snapshot. The four enjoyed participating in the various games and competitions.

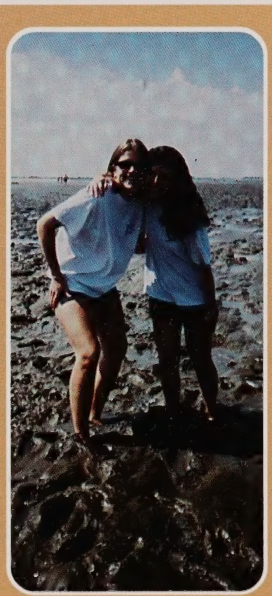


Enjoying a sunny day at the MGM Studios in Orlando, Florida, Rachel Piggot, Jessica Miller, and Christie Herman hang out with King Louie of "The Jungle Book". These three best friends took time out for some fun before the soccer tournament began.

While snorkling in Key Largo, Florida, Janie Larned, Jennifer Leonard, and Becca Mclain have the chance to explore one of the most picturesque oceans in the world. The three girls enjoyed all of the aquatic life and beautiful scenery they were able to share together.

Trying to look alike , Jody Cooper and Kristen Kenney, strut their stuff for twin night at Young Life Camp in Saranac, New York. Jody and Kristen did well in the competition and enjoyed the week long activities.

This early childhood friendship shows Adam Schmidt and Dan Hechtkopf eating lots of the dirt and enjoying it. Some of Adam and Dan's other favorite past times included eating bugs, causing trouble, and shoving things up their noses.



"das Watt"

When the tide goes out, there is about a quarter of a mile of mud left behind. Thus the name das watt or mud beach. Natalie Klinkenberger and Lindsay Holtz enjoyed sinking their feet into the mud as they walked along the beach. The girls experienced Wilhelmshaven, Germany during the summer as exchange students.

Proving Our Pride
Spirit Week

During the five days of Spirit Week, the student body became unified through the various activities. Each day of the week had a different theme which allowed students the opportunity to demonstrate their Patriot pride. An array of golds and blues could be seen around the school, whether it was in the face paint, clothing, or hairstyles.

Pumping up the crowd, Adam Appleton and Janie Larned take on the challenge of being emcees of the Homecoming pep rally. Janie and Adam were active participants in the daily activities of Spirit Week.

Styling in their sleep wear, Kelly Drinko, Leah Ullian, Meredith Mobley, Melissa Zuraw, and Ashley Persinger come to school in comfort. Pajama Day was popular because it allowed for a little more sleep in the morning and a lot of relaxing during the day.

Performing their energetic routine, the varsity cheerleaders wow the crowd with their athletic stunts at the pep rally. Working together the girls maintained a strong, steady balance for the the girls suspended in the air.

Enthusiastically breaking through the banner, the varsity football team stirs up the crowd. The team's school spirit was evident Homecoming night with their victory over Salem.

Spirited freshman, Jon Hawley, suits up for Camo Day. Jon, and many other students, enjoyed disguising themselves from school work.

With blue and gold from head to toe, Emily Ackerman, Katie Jackson, Jen Bagby, Kristen Trost, and Kelly Brown display their patriot pride. The girls were excited about attending the afternoon pep rally and Homecoming game that night.

Spirit Week

"The best part about Spirit Week was the fact that it united the whole school. Seeing everyone come together in the name of pride was really cool."

-Claire Cuccchiari-Loring
Junior

Mardi Gras night at Homecoming

The joy and festivities of Mardi Gras centered around the football game, the parade, the crowning of the court, and the dance. During half time, the band stood at attention as the court marched out, and Mike Maugeri and Lauren Cryan were crowned King and Queen. The Patriots were victorious with a 28-7 win over the Salem Sun Devils.

Several members of the senior class get together for a picture before walking along the track next to their Mardi Gras float. The senior float was selected to win first place in the parade.

Before heading off to the Homecoming Dance, Michelle Foster, Kelly Brown, Tracie Moore, John Hoberg, Eric Bryant, and Jeff McAlister enjoy eating at Fredricos. The privacy and quaintness of Fredricos allowed this group of friends to enjoy each other's company before the dance.

Dancing the night away, Taneka, Britany, Kne-Kne, Chris, Nathanel, and Walt party at the Homecoming Dance. The decorations, music, and food was well enjoyed by all.

Beaming enthusiastically, Mike Maugeri and Lauren Cryan pose for a picture after receiving the traditional crowns given by the past Homecoming King and Queen. Both Mike and Lauren were very excited to learn they would be the school's representatives.

As the cheerleaders hold up the banner and balloons, the crowd waits for the football team to be announced. The band played and the crowd roared their support during the opening ceremony.

Patriot Spirit

Displaying his patriot pride, freshman Tim Gastor helps to lead the crowd of students and alumni with chants cheering on the team. Tim was one of several students during the night who donned the patriot attire hoping to inspire the crowd.

GO AGAIN

The crowd cheers the football team as they successfully hold the Sun Devils at the twenty yard line. During homecoming night, former students joined their friends in experiencing all the festivities.

Hoping to not get caught without a decal, this student attempted to park in the student ot illegally. Security person, Don Phillips made sure that students got the message bout not parking on school grounds without a decal.

Illegal Parking

"Just this once it won't hurt to park in the student lot so I won't be late to class", was the rationale of some students. But without a decal, a student gambled that Lady Luck would smile on them and they wouldn't get tagged, towed or punished. Unfortunately, too many students did not have the pleasure of Lady Luck and therefore found themselves spending a day in ISS or worse- having their car towed and paying a $50 tow fee. Better to leave for school a few minutes earlier in the morning than to pay the price for parking illegally..

Shag Away

During the school year, students had the opportunity to learn various dance forms by signing up for Thursday night lessons in the cafeteria. The most popular ones were swing and shag from the forties and fifties, respectively. But Grant Garmon and Lean Sanderson decided to take their dancing even further by competing at the National Shag Dance Championships 2000 where they received a third place. Partner dancing had made a come-back in the new millenium with students discovering that two is better than one.

Sitting down for a bite at Sal's Bella Pizza, John Hoberg, Sara Polino, Jon Gray, and Stephanie Granger socialize on a Friday night after a football game. These students, like many others, were commonly seen at similar restaurants after sporting events.

Night Life

How did students unwind on the weekend after five grueling days at school? Varsity basketball and football games were Friday night hot spots for many, but the most popular places were Sal's Bella Pizza and Y-Not Pizza, where students gathered for good food and company. On nights of Patriot victories, these resturants would be packed with teenage laughter.

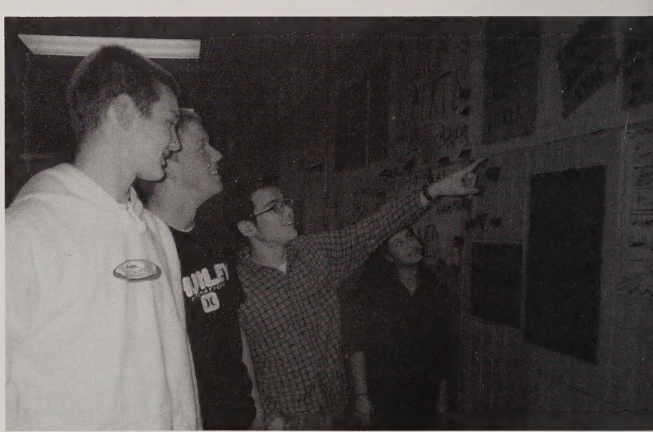
Future Dreams

What exactly was in store for life after high school? Some students already knew what professional field they wanted to pursue. Others looked to college to guide them in an academic direction. In either case, dedicated students who worked hard fulfilled their future dreams. Anna Chapman said, "I definitely want to attend a challenging college and perhaps have an environmental science career." Whatever road students chose, they would have fond memories of life at high school and the dreams they held for the future.



Viewing the posters of colleges or careers selected by seniors, Derrick Flynn, Jon Hoberg, Matt Eng and Jessee Tischler admire the various choices. Juniors were inspired by the seniors and began to think of their own future dreams.

Planners!

It is 5"x8", blue with a halogram on the cover, had calendars and dates on the inside and their use is required by the administration of all students. What is it? You guessed it-- Planners. Those hated books that are required for being in the halls as well as to use the internet in the library. No matter how much a student detested the little book, if they lost it, there was a $5 chargeto secure another one. Most of the time, students had their planners, but if not, they could still survive the halls by following these simple techniques:

1) In the dangerous English hall, turn off your high beams and don't exceed speeds of over 2.5 mph.
2) If you are caught plannerless in the 200 hall, don't worry. There are plenty of posters and flyers on the walls. Turn and read them if a teacher should see you.
3) Rambling with a random locker is always legit. "I forgot the combo." or "I can't get it" always seems to work.

Advancing down the hall, Jen Stone is stopped by Mrs. Kandy Cross who checks the date and time in her planner. Students were required to have their planners with them at all times during the day.

The Mosh Pit

Another day in the life of sophomore students provided frustration and anxiety on getting to class on time. As the bell rang, the halls became crowded with students and faculty trying to make it to their next class. Many students tended to walk slowly or would decide to stop and socialize with their friends in order to catch up on the latest gossip. The most crowded hallway was always the 300 hall and the intersection of the 500 and 600 halls which caused students to be late to class. Sophomores learned through the year that it was important not to waste any time in the hallways to avoid getting detention or ISS.

Exiting the building, students maneuver down the crowded hallway. The speed was slow but, students maintained their pace.

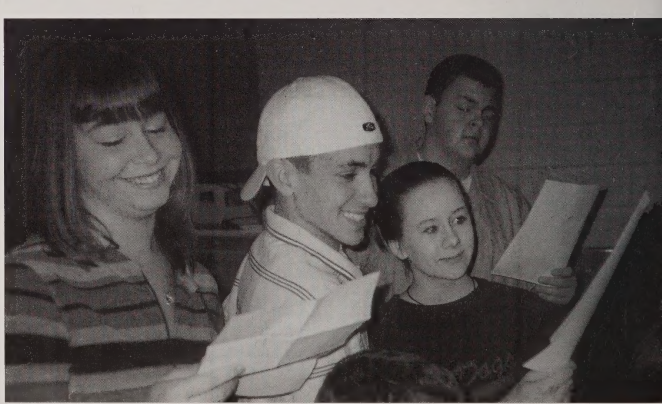
Barely Passing a Course

Most students understood that if they barely passed a course it wasn't a job for a slacker, but completely the opposite. They had to have endurance and maintain a very active thought process to be able to just barely pass any particular subject. Being able to calculate the exact minimum one needed to slide by, in the most fashionable sense of the term, was indeed an art. A student had to be able to study the sections of tests that counted the most leaving the tidbits of vocabulary and fill in the blank for quick guesswork. Although it was a beautiful situation when a student was able to slide by a subject with ease, it still was much easier to just do the best job possible.



On Februrary 2, April Morris, Andy Ramos, and Samantha Smith examine their first semester report cards. They were all very pleased with the results.

PSAT's

An unprecedented occurrence took place on October 17 when classes were suspended for a day of testing. All sophomores were required to take the PSAT while freshmen and juniors were given the option to participate. Teachers were assigned areas for proctoring the test or monoriting study blocks for students not testing. The PSAT is the one test which determines the National Merit Scholars as well as provides students the added practice that is helpful before taking the SAT. According to guidance counselor Tammy Miller, "Taking a school day to test was very successful. I believe we'll continue to test in this manner."

During a timed portion of the PSAT, Megan Shandelson, Taylor Sharp, Alex Sheard, Achilles Segers, and Laura Seipel concentrate on the questions. Students worked through several timed tests for about three hours.

Turning Sixteen

A milestone that was met with much excitement was a student's sixteenth birthday. Emily Routten remarked, "My sweet sixteen party was at a church social hall with a D.J. It was a lot of fun." Being able to drive was a significant right of passage which gave a sense of freedom, but with it came more responsibility. It was an exilerating feeling the first time a student got to drive around by themselves, not having to wait for someone to drive them.

First Kiss

Although life might not have been so great sometimes, there were always moments and occasions that made it worthwhile-such as a first kiss. Whether it was on the playground in kindergarten or the first year in high school, it would always be remembered and never forgotten. Carin Andrews remembered her first kiss like it was yesterday. " While at a millennium party at my friends house, my boyfriend gave me my first real kiss during the countdown to Y2K" said Carin. She told this story many times and never tired of telling it. A first kiss could happen anywhere, and when it did it was remembered forever.

The Administrative Team

Leading to the Future

"The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life." -Plato

The Administrative Team consisted of Dr. Hazel Jessee-Principal, and Assistant Principals Carol Anthony, Gail Chuy, Carlton Hill, and George Parker. All administrators worked together for the benefit of the school, community and especially the students. When it came time to be tough- they were, but when guidance, caring and understanding were required, the administrative team rose to the occasion for the good of the student.

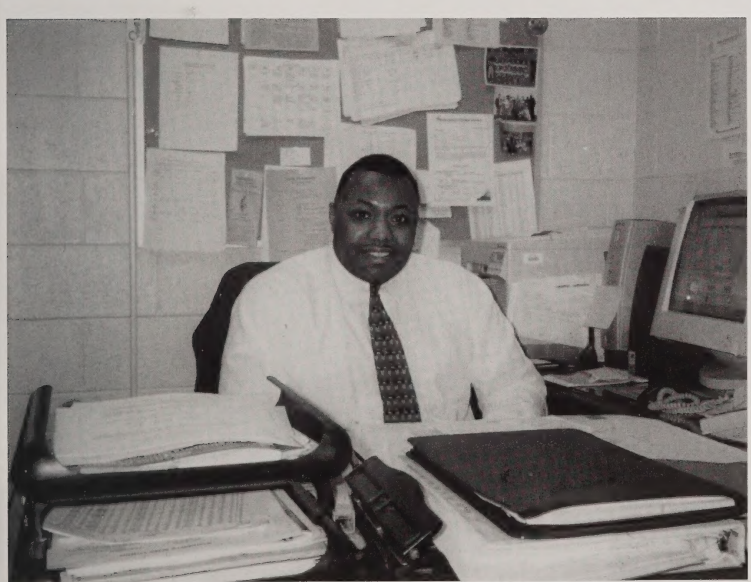
A New Assistant Principal



Mr. George Parker

"Your time spent well in school will pay big dividends later."

Bringing new and fresh ideas to the school, Mr. George Parker was by no means new to the job of being an assistant principal. Mr. Parker graduated from Norfolk State and served as a Naval officer during the Gulf War. He taught mathematics and coached the wrestling team at Bayside High from 1993-2000. Mr Parker is married with one daughter.

Teacher of the Year

Mr. Harry Jackson

"We all make choices and must live the good ones and the mistakes."

Having visited twenty-four countries, Mr. Jackson is indeed a world traveler and therefore an enormous fount of knowledge for students in his government classes. He belongs to many professional organizations and continues to learn through courses, conferences and workshops he attends. Mr. Harry Jackson is definitely a leader for all students and teachers to emulate.

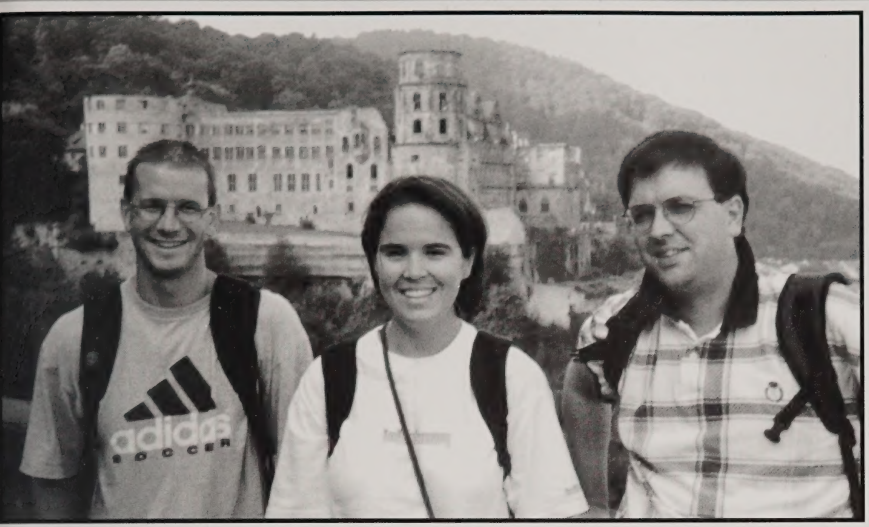
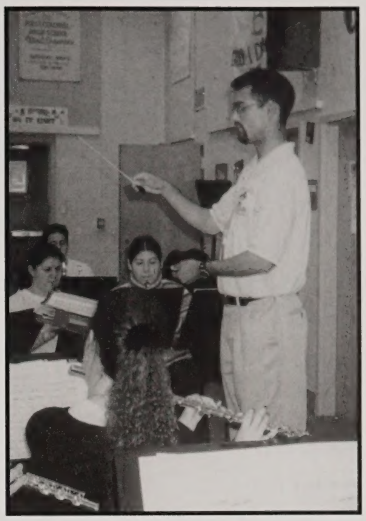
On her second visit to the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem, Carol Anthony inserts a note into the wall and prays for strength and healing for Winnie Ridill. Carol, Harry Jackson and a few other teachers traveled last summer to Turkey and Israel.



Preparing to hike over to the Heidelberg Castle, Matt. Wallace, Staci McCoy, and Doug MacDonald take a short relaxing moment for a photograph and to enjoy the view. These teachers also visited Switzerland, Austria, Liechtenstein and Hungary while in Europe.



Directing the advanced band, first year teacher Mr. Jason Garcia prepares the students for their March concert. Oboists, Ashley Iwanowski and Theresa Larsen remain fixed upon Mr. Garcia's every move.

The Security Team

Don Phillips, Jaton Hines, Kendra Edwards, Bonnie Courtney, Leslie Benjamin, Officer Thomas DeMartini

Security, Security, Security

Dedicated to the education, safety & security of all students, teachers, staff & guests.

Keeping the students and faculty safe was the main objective of the security team. Various other duties were: escorting students through the building, tagging unauthorized vehicles in the parking lot, and securing the building's doors at 7:25 a.m. Officer DeMartini, Leslie Benjamin, Don Phillips, Bonnie Courtney, Kendra Edwards and Jaton Hines comprised the security team. Four of the members also served as coaches for various sports proving they were there for the good of the students.

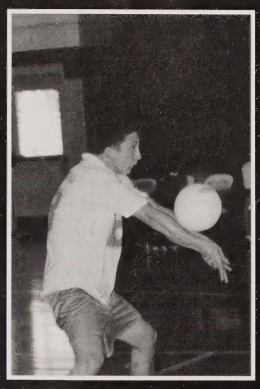
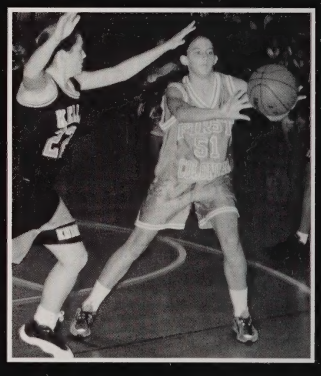
GO AGAIN





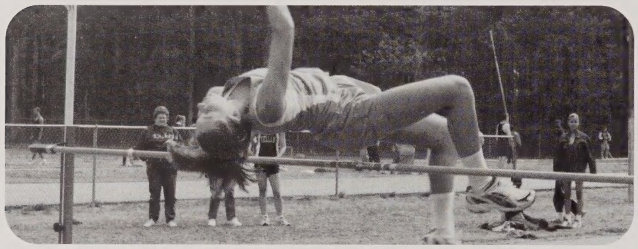
Maneuvering the ball into position, Jamie Todd sets up for a long pass. Jamie's ability to assess play strategy kept the Girls' Soccer team in the forefront.

Outdoor Track

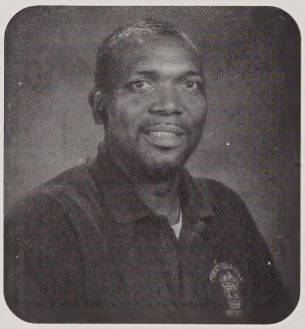
Raising the Bar

"Small in numbers, but big in heart,"were the words Coach Jaton Hinesused to describe the Boys' Track team. During spring conditioning and daily practice, they showed determination to become winners. Selected as the teams' Most Valuable Player was Uvalde Harris and Jabbar Spellmen as the Most Improved Player. Jerome King, Jabar Spellman, and Uvalde Harris were the key starters. The most intense meet was against the Kempsville Chiefs.

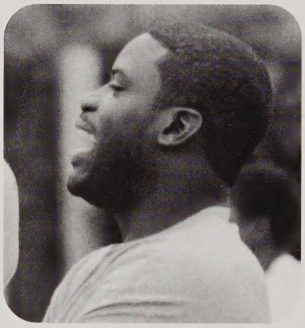
The Girls' Outdoor Track team enjoyed an exciting season with two of their most challenging meets against Cox and Kempsville. Coach Benjamin remarked, "Fantastic season, great kids." After Shaunta Gibbs broke her ribula bone, Crystal Gibbs won first place in the triple jump in the regionls meet. The team's key players were Shaunta Gibbs, Crystal Gibbs, and Ashley Ezell. Selected as Most Improved Player was Tamesha Parker and MVP was Crystal Gibbs.



Displaying her skill in the high jump, Megan Welsert clears for victory. Megan's outstanding ability to hurl her body over the bar require d great strength, concentration, and determination.



Coach Benjamin (Head Coach Girls)



Coach Hines (Head Coach Boys)

As her team watches, Kyra Waters, takes to the jump. Kyra's agility enabled her to help her team out in their most critical moments against Kempsville.

Going for the win, Jerome King hurls his body in the long jump . Jerome' determination to win combined with his abilities made him a key starter for the tean

Taking the lead over Kellam, Leah Hammond easily strides over the hurdle. Leah kept up her pace to win the event.

With determination written all over his face, Durell Hawkins goes full speed during the 100-meter hurdle event. Speed, power, and coordination were a necessity to this event.

Quickly getting the hand off from Leah Matchett, Stephanie Saltes hussel's to the finish line. In the relays, each team member played equally important roles.

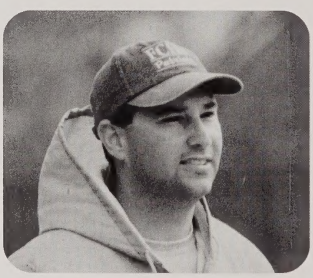
Varsity Softball

"Give Us A 'Haaa! '"

Each game's opening cheer, "Give us a 'Haaa!" was heard loud and clear coming from the girls as they psyched themselves up for the battle to come. Although the team was young and basically inexperienced, they improved greatly in individual and team skills throughout the season. Juniors Morghan Bosch and Jenine Land along with senior Mary Colasanto and Jenny Bell were the key players during the season. Coach Beam remarked, "The most memorable games were against Ocean Lakes, Kempsville, Green Run and Bayside. The girls learned to remain steady and sure never giving up no matter what should happen". Losing within one point to Bayside and Ocean Lakes only served to inspire the girls to give it their best. The team members began their conditioning routine in January and continued throughout the softball season. Selected as Most Valuable Player was Jenny Bell and Most Improved Player was Laura Musik.

After catching a foul tip, freshman Nikki Fanning throws the ball back to the pitcher. Nikki's quick response and keen eye earned her the Honorable Mentions award.

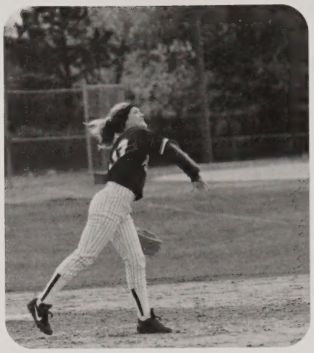


Coach Steve Beam

Trying to keep her foot on the base, Jenine Land stretches to make the play. Jenine's flexibility was impressive but the ball didn't quite make it in time to get the Kellam Knight out.

From second base , Heather Hutchins quickly throws the grounder to Jenine Land at first base. Heather's versatility was demonstrated by her ability to play second and third base, and short stop positions.

Serving up another fast ball, Shannon Wynne attempts to surprise the Kellem batter. Shannon had a very busy season since she was also the pitcher for the jv team.



Completing the double play, Morghan Bosch quickly throws the ball to first base. Morghan's swiftness resulted in an out for Kellam.

Catching a grounder on a hop, Laura Musik prepares to throw the ball to first. Laura's consistent improvment throughout the season earned her the Most Improved Player award.

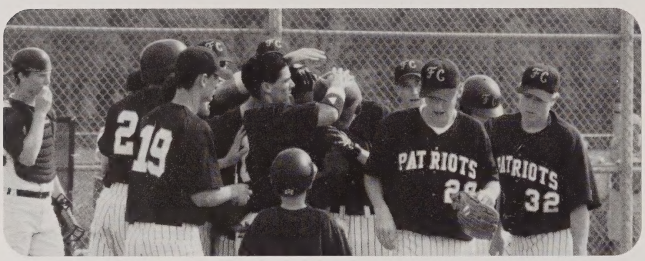
Running to the top

Varsity Baseball

Gaining a number one ranking of the fifty high school baseball programs in the United States, the Patriots proudly accepted this award from USA Today. Coach Wilson remarked, "To play for the Patriots was not just a chance, it was an opportunity that was given to whom deserved it."

To stay on top, the patriots kept up their year-round physical conditioning which included weight training and endurance running. All the hard work paid off when they defeated Cox 20-2 on their home field.

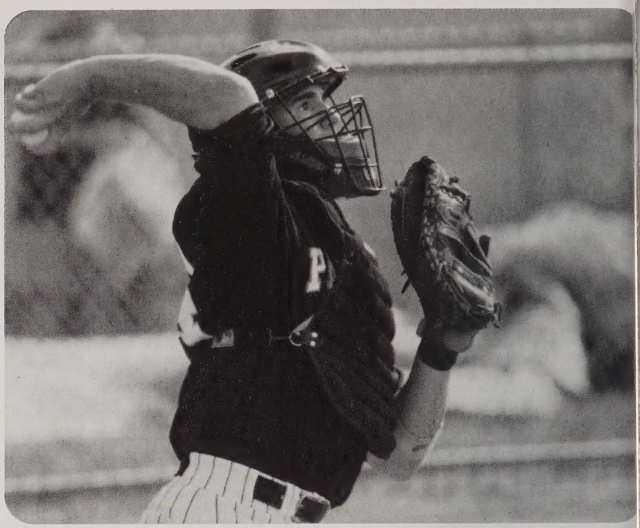
The boys showed a strong sense of teamwork by pulling together whenever they fell behind. But without the guidance and encouragement of Coach Wilson, the boys might not have prevailed. Selected as Most Valuable Player was Kurt Isenberg. He was also selected as All Beach District Player of the Year and made First Team for All State. Most Improved Player was Mike Supa. The team's strengths were in pitching and timely hitting.

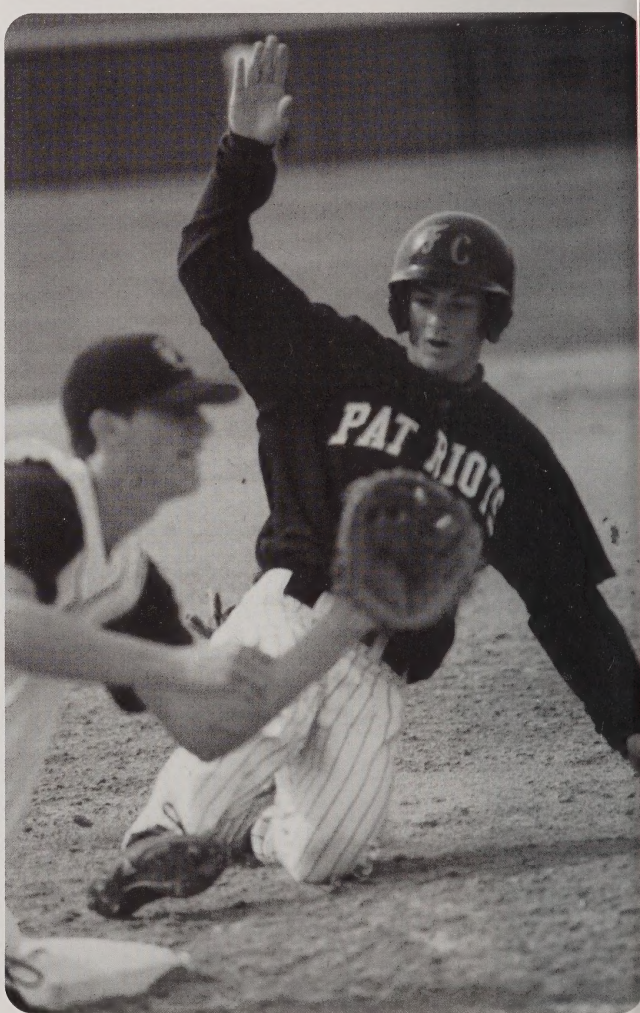


Team members unite around Kurt Isenberg after he hit a home run. Male bonding was one important factor that contributed to the making of our great baseball team.

Coach Norbie Wilson

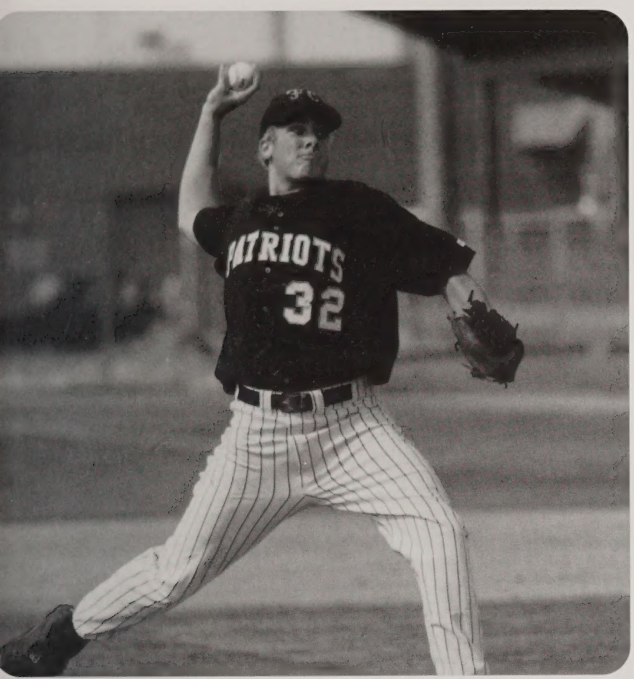
With a quick return to the pitcher, Mike Supa keeps the game moving along. He later signed a scholarship to JMU as a catcher.

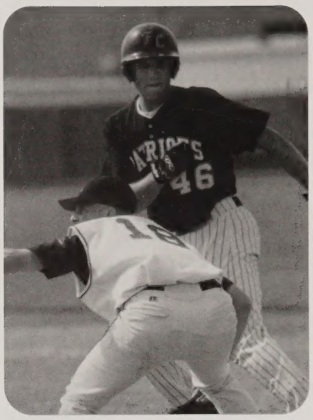




Showing perfect form, Brian Langbord steals third base from Ocean Lakes. This was just one of many bases Brian stole in route to the Beach District Championship.

Showing good form on the mound, Bobby Isenberg fires a pitch to one of the Kempsville Indians. Bobby and his brother Kurt were both voted as All-Tidewater pitchers.





First baseman, Clay Friske, hustles back to his base to avoid being picked off. Clay proved to be a key player in leading the Patriots to the quarter finals of the state tournament.

As Lysle McElhaney strives for the pick off throw, Brett VamBell backs him up. This middle infield combination proved to be one of the best in the beach.

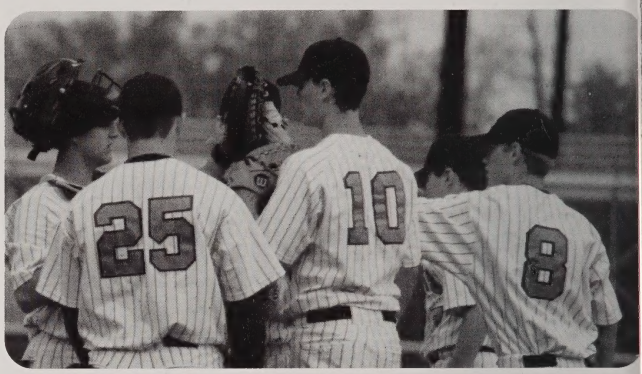
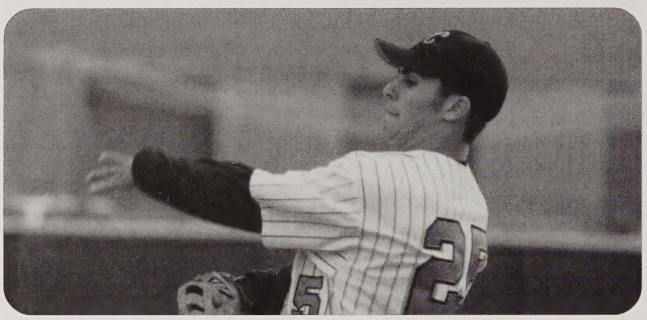
To the Playing Field

Junior Varsity Baseball

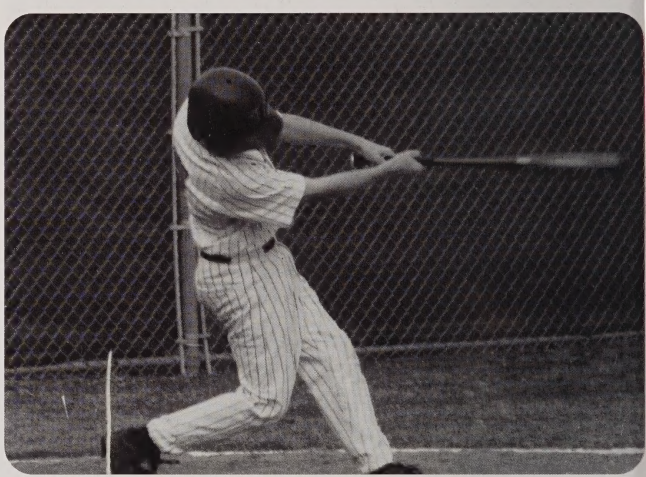
According to coach Mike Cespedes, "Even though the team was extremely young, there were six freshmen who consistently started each game". The Most Valuable Player was Zack Backer and selected as the Most Improved Player was Chris Bowman. Jacob Fox, Chris Bowman, Tim Amidon, Shane Kozuch, Wes Payne, Dan Wilmouth, Bert Wilson, and Tim Redinger were voted the team's key players. When Bert Wilson's no-hitter against Bayside brought the team to victory, that game became the most memorable moment of the season. With unity as the team's greatest strength, the boys' game with Ocean lakes was noted as the most intense and challenging of the entire season. Surviving a very tough and close game, the team pulled through and beat Ocean Lakes three-two. The boys ended their season with a 6-3 record proving that many of them were ready for the varsity team.

Gathering team spirit, the guys huddle around the pitcher's mound as they plan thei next play. The strategy they agreed upon allowed them to defeat the Bayside Marlins





With intense speed, infielder Tim Amidon hurls the ball back to the pitcher. Tim's quick response kept the Princess Anne Cavaliers at bay.



Swinging with incredible power, big time batter Shane Kuzuch discourages Green Run's pitching staff. Shanes hitting contributed to the 10-0 victory.

Against the Odds

Junior Varsity Softball

Sophomore and Co-captain Stepahnie Duvall gives a strong swing hitting the ball into left field. Stephanie, with one of the best batting averages on the team, was able to score a run.

The Junior Varsity Girls' Softball team had a successful season, finishing second in the district with a record of 8-2. The team was led by their co-captains Stephanie Duvall and Jeni Detweiler. Other key players that led the team to many victories were Becca Arline, the catcher, and Liz Dunlap, the team's Most Valuable Player. The girl's strength was their offense with a hitting average of fourteen runs per game. But the most memorable moment for the team was coming from behind to beat Kellam in the last inning. The team had many clse games, but the most intense one was against the Salem Sun Devils. That game went into several extra innings before the girls rose to victory. Great Improvement was reached during the season and Coach Larry Bowman was assured that many many players would move up to varsity next year providing more exciting games for the fans of both teams.

Making a quick run back to second base, Jonelle Gonzalez manages to outrun the shortstop. Jonelle enjoyed the suspense and challenge of stealing bases.

As Coach Larry Bowman discusses the girl's next strategy, they listen attentively. Coach Bowman presented the gameplan, but knew the girls would also have to think on their feet.

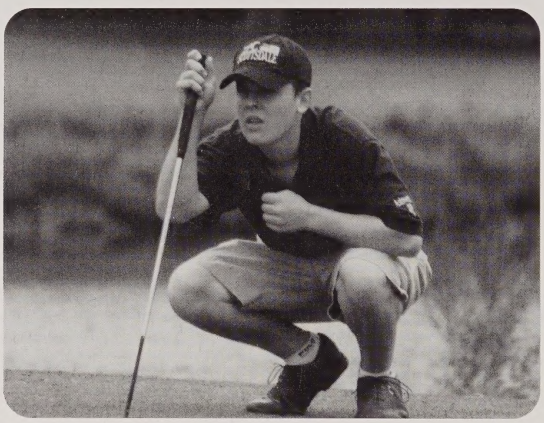
At the forefront guiding them every step of the way was Coach Leo Anthony. The boys ended with an impressive 11-2-1 record for the season. Coach Anthony remarked, " Our most intense and challenging game was against our long time rival-the Cox Falcons. Having a tie score with them at the Newport News Invitational Tournament, we both ended in third place". But in the First colonial/Bow Creek Tournament, the team proudly earned a first place trophy.

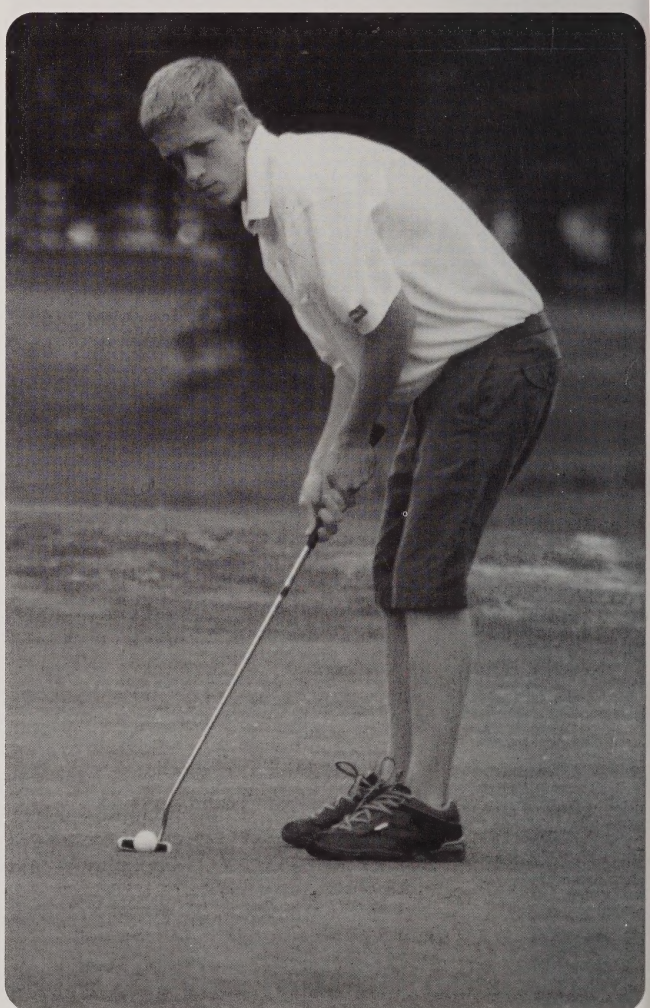
Mike Gigliotti was the team's selection for Most Valuable Player having kept his score low throughout the season. Most Improved Player was Jeff Biggs. Jeff recalled the season as "exciting and challenging". Even though some matches were played in the rain, the team's very unusual lucky charm- peanuts, or course Vigrginia peanuts- seemed to bring them through. Peanuts were chosen by the members as their "lucky charm".



Looking over the situation carefully, Jeff Biggs makes the necessary calculations. Jeff was sucessful at sinking the ball and gaining a stroke against Kempsville.

Coach Leo Anthony

With steady nerves and lots of concentration, Holland Almer eyes the ball. Holland came close but not close enough to making the putt.



Out of the sand trap, Holland Almer hits the ball with accurate precision. Holland was able to get the ball back into play and keep the score low.

With an intense swing, Thomas Link hits the ball onto the fairway. Thomas kept the team ahead with his aggressive maneuvers.

Setting up for the chip, Blair Townsend prepares for a shot to the green. Blair took careful aim before executing the stroke.

Striking the ball with great power from the fairway, Mike Gigliotti tries to set up for a putting position. Mike's steady hand and careful aim allowed him to make an easy hole-in one putt.

Tackling the Ball

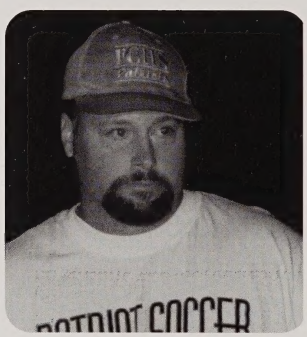
Varsity Boys' Soccer

Bammm ! was the only noise heard on the field due to the Varsity Boys' Soccer team's explosive offense. The Patroits had another spectacular season finishing with an 11-4-1 record. This winning record was credited to an offense that on the average, out scored their opponents 3-1. Their plan going into every game was to exhibit total and strategic team work. Having extremely talented players at every position, the Patroits had to spread around the scoring responsibilities. Larry Craig emrerged as a leader during the season and led the way with a total of eighteen goals. Voted as the Most Improved Player was Sam Clayman. Key starters were Larry Craig, Sam Clayman, Harlan Hendricks, and sophomores Andrew Walker and Gordon Templeman.

With the entire group of young men on the team, they were practically unbeatable. Coach Tucei remarked, " I couldn't have wished for a better group of boys on the team". The boys finished their season tied for a share in the Beach District crown.

During halftime, Headcoach Joe Tucei rallies the Patriots for a second-half surge. Coach's halftime speech always helped to spur on the team with encouragement and determination.

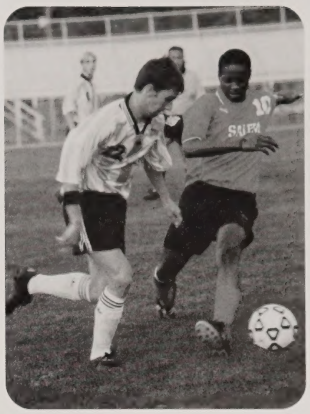
Using his quickness and agility to find the gaps in the defense, Ryan Withers sets up for another pass to his teammates. Ryan sucessfully maneuvered the ball againstthe Princess Anne Cavalier players.



Coach Joe Tucei

Even with a broken arm during the season, Harlan Hendricks, a key player, was able to keep the ball moving. Harlan quickly moved in and took control from the Kempsville opposition.

Determined to gain control, Gordon Templeman struggles to kick the ball to a teammate. Gordon rushed through the defense and stole the ball gaining a score against the Princess Anne Cavaliers.



Displaying his ability to keep control of the ball, senior Ryan O' Donnal slips past yet another Salem defender. Ryan's determination enabled him to allow the Patriots another goal for the scoreboard.

With his lighting quick reflexes, Brian Trochest makes another diving save. Brian Trochest's defensive skills played a key role in the team's successful season.

Varsity Girls' Soccer

A Step Ahead

The Girls' Varsity Soccer team recorded another successful season with only one district loss. Thanks to excellent defense and team unity the girls were able to hold their opponents at only ten goals all season; while scoring eighty-seven goals on opponents. All of the girls combined for a team effort to bring forth another winning season. Coach Rowlands was able to describe the season with one word, "Awesome," while the team's Most Improved Player, Kristen Kenny called the season "Exciting" and "Memorable." The girls recorded their most memorable victories against Cox during the regular season and Princess Anne in the District Finals. Of all their accomplishments during the season, the most amazing statistics recorded were the sixteen games played when they were able to hold their opponents absolutely scoreless. Barbara Besal commented, "Wait til next year.Our goal is to take the state championship!".

As she swiftly moves in, Katie Birdsong takes control of the ball and sends it down field to her teammates. Katie's quick footwork allowed her to keep the ball from the opposition.

Coach Janet Rowlands

Using her speed and aggression, Jamie Todd slides by a Salem defender. Jamie's quickness contributed to the Sun Devil's defeat.

Applying pressure to the ball handler before forcing another Salem turnover, Kim Hopwood puts her defense skills to good use. Kim was well known by the other teams as one of the most aggressive players.

Showing off their team spirit, Katie Birdsong, Anna Young, and Chrissy Ogura cheer their team on. The vocal support of fellow teammates spurred the players to excel.

Talented senior Blair Eason brings the ball up the sideline to build on an attack. Blair's speed, agility, and control were crucial to the team's success.

After Coach Rowlands' half-time pep talk, the girls are ready for the second half. Rallying together gave each girl encouragement to fight their hardest for the rest of the game.

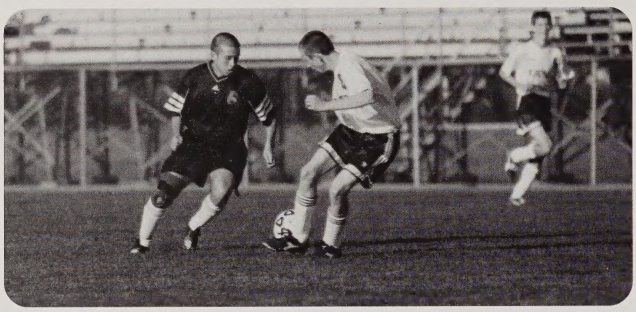
Playing With Heart

Junior Varsity Boys' Soccer

As he summerized the season, Coach Wallace commented, "Although it wasn't my most successful, it was the most enjoyable. We had our high & low points, but we had fun the entire season". Most Improved Player, Farly Hale, brought great memories to the field through his creative playing style. Farly's powerful shots, nicknamed the "Lazers", became useful in playing in those challenging games. However, Farly's "Lazers" and the team's unity just wasn't enough to win the most intense games against Cox and Kempsville. Despite the losses they had, unity & enjoyment of the game were the team's strengths. Most Valuable Players, Kevin Stuttz and Mike Refo, along with key players, Kirk Scifres, John Rider, and Brian Terrell were all a big part of the team and played with enough heart to make the team's record 6-1-2 .

As one of the key players of the team, John Rider attacks the ball to keep Tallwood from scoring. John's aggressiveness kept the Lions from scoring any more than two points.



Completing a back kick, Jason Klemmer retrieves the ball and goes for the goal. Jason's strong footwork kept the Tallwood Lions from getting to the goal.

On a breakaway, Kirk Scifres scrambles to overtake the Tallwood player. Kirk blocked the Lion's attempt to move the ball to their goal.

Making the Pass

Junior Varsity Girls' Soccer

One of the key defenders, Megan Whitehurst, skillfully blows through two Tallwood players. Megan, a freshman, had a powerful kick that would often save the team in stressful situations

With an outstanding record of 7-1-1, the JV Girls' Soccer team triumphed on the field. The winning season was a product of the girls' dedication and teamwork. "All my players worked together this season; it was a team effort," stated Coach Staci McCoy. Key players included Stephanie Granger, Brittney Doyle, Sara Butsavage, Andrea Frittelli, and Megan Whitehurst who led the team through intense matches, against such teams as Cox, Princess Anne, and Kempsville. The strongest attribute of the team was their strong defense with a solid goalie, Rebecca Cilley. One of the most challenging games was against Cox, but through McCoy's expertise in coaching and the girls' ability to handle the pressure, the team proudly pulled out with a tie. The girls developed a strong bond on and off the playing field which strengthened their teamwork skills. Coach McCoy describes the girl's attitude, "They continued to improve throughout the season."

As she gains control over the ball, Diane Vaghari looks to clear it from the defense. Diane won the Most Improved Player award because of her hard-work and commitment throughout the season.

Talented freshman Andrea Frittelli uses her speed to build an attack for the team. Andrea's quick footwork and aggression allowed her to gain control and pass it on to a teammate.

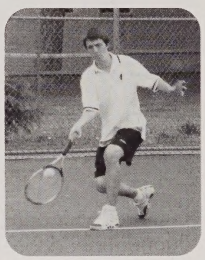
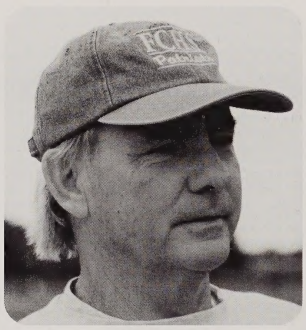
Boys' Tennis

The Boys' Tennis team faced a challenging season with harsh opposition and fierce enthusiasm. Despite such opposition, the boys' finished with a 5-4 season in the Beach district and a 5-6 overall. Coach Britton commented that they did have a "tough season, but the boys met this harshness and pulled through with success." Selected a Most Valuable Player was Todd Detwieler and Most Improved Player was Jon Antle. The most memorable two meets were against the Princess Anne Cavaliers and the Ocean Lakes Dolphins. The team acquired most of its strength from their number two doubles which consisted of Chris Grulke and Ben Flora. These two young men managed to ace it up against nearly every match during the season On the whole, the team members met the opposition and pulled through maintaining great spirit and optimism.

Showing his skills, Ben Flora wows the crowd with his backhand topspin lob. Ber agility allowed him to be ranked as one of the top six players on the team.

Coming through with a perfect forehand, John Antle beats his opponent with ease. Smooth strokes added strength and accuracy to a player's game.

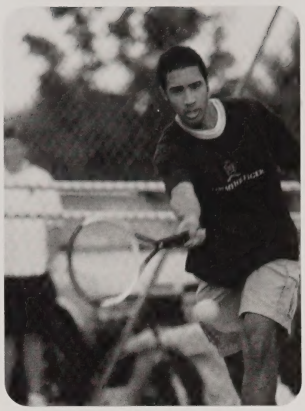




Coach Fred Britton

Following through, Chris Grulke completes another awesome hit. Agility and quic thinking enabled Chris to be successful in his matches.

Coming through with a perfect serve, Todd Detweiler helps the team win another match. Todd was ranked number one on the team.



Using a forehand, Jarrod Quarles concentrates heavily on scoring another point. Jarrod's diligent and persistent effort gained another point against Ocean Lakes.

Coach Britton and Assistant Coach Ken Rand give words of wisdom and encouragement to the team before a tough match against Tallwood. Their pre-game talks helped the boys to focus and be aggressive.

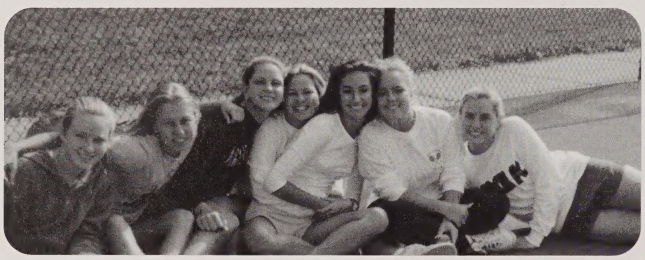
Girls Just Want To Have Fun

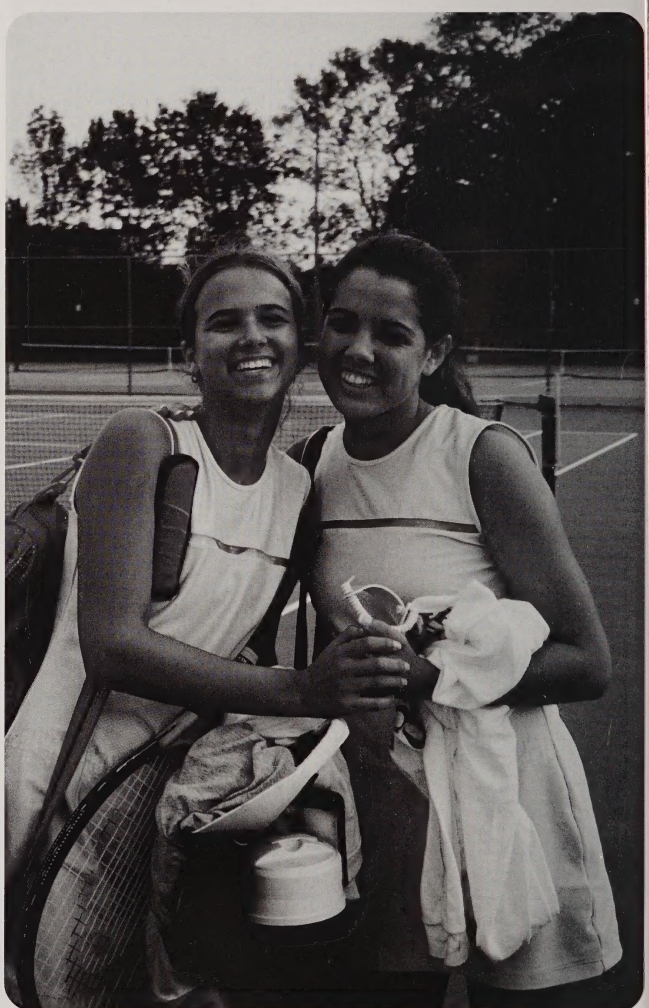
Good attitudes, high skills, and a new coach was the recipe for success this season. The top six players got the team all the way to the State Semifinals for the first time in six years with overwhelming support from their teammates. This accomplishment was credited to the tight bond that the team formed throughout the season. Spending time off the court with a trip to Busch Gardens and dinners at Olive Garden helped lift the team spirit. Coach Diane Deaton brought new methods to the team including standing in basket to achieve a balanced serve, jump roping to increase foot speed, and playing music during practice. Number one doubles team, Laurie Morgan and Emily Routten, reached the State Quaterfinals and number one player, Emily, reached the State Semifinals for singles. At the awards ceremony, Emily Routten received Most Valuable Player, Stephanie Granger was given Most Valuable Player, and Cristin Miller earned the Coach's Award.



Cheering from the sideline, Paige Young, Amanda Miller, Paige Slepsky, Berkeley Highton, Courtney Marzahn, Lauren Radermacher, and Stephanie Granger support the teammates at the State Tournement. Team moral, this season, helped to keep the players in high spirits.

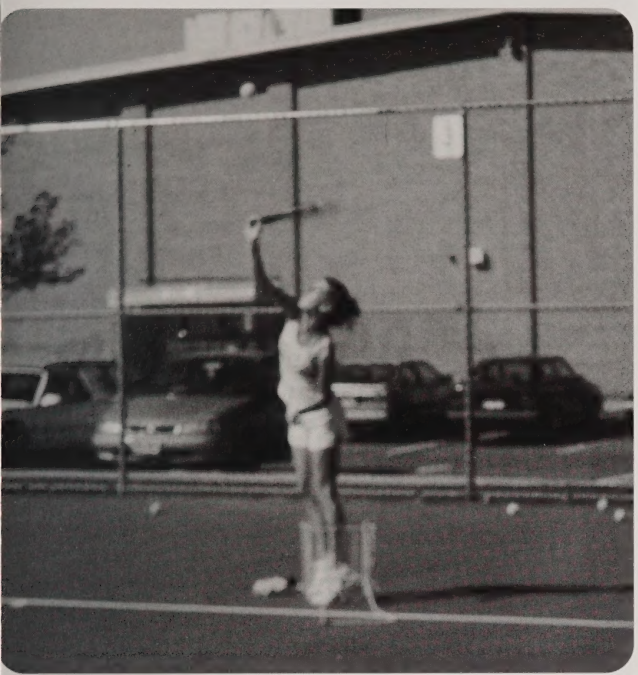
Coach Diane Deaton

Stepping up for a forehand, sophomore, Jody Cooper rips another cross-court winner. Although this was Jody's first year on the team, she proved to be an important asset at number four.



Congratulating each other, Jeni Detweiler and Cristin Miller celebrate after their victory at the State Quarterfinals. Their win was the deciding match that got the team to the semifinals.

Reaching up, Sophomore, Emily Routten smashes another ace over the net. Her perfected serve earned her most valuable player this season as well as district and regional champion.



Following through, sophomore, Laurie Morgan carefully hits another topspin backhand down the line. Her topspin ability and quickness earned her the number two position.

Concentrating on the court, senior Lauren Ricker returns a tough shot with her famous topspin lob from behind the baseline. Her ability to stay focused and come back after being behind is what earned Lauren many victories.

Varsity Football

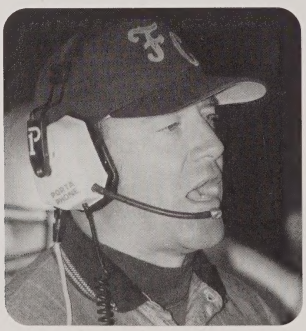
The Beginning Of A Dynasty

With the papers calling it a "re-building" season, the Varsity Football team ended with an 8-2 record with a new head coach-Sam Scarborough. Key players were Anthony Frates, Aaron Rouse, Jermy Bjournberg, Jabar Spellman and Most Valuable Player Jerome King and Most Improved Player Joe Hawthorn. Coach Scarborough commented, "this season was very successful, and I'm looking forward to next year". The new staff led the Patriots with positive attitudes, morale and hard work ethics. These efforts along with team participation got the men into the play offs in their first year of coaching. Before the games, the guys would huddle up and chant "We Ready" which got them psyched up. When Coach Scarborough was asked to sum up the season he said, "This was a true team in every sense of the word and great bonds were made..." Much more will be expected with the beginning of this new dynasty.

Avoiding the tackler while running down the sideline, Jerome King breaks for the endzone. Jerome's size and speed made him one of the best running backs in the area and helped lead the team to a winning season.

Getting ready to take the snap, Brett Vambell quickley reads the defence. Brett was always observant of any unexpected moves from the opposition.

Slipping away from the Kellam defender, Anthony Frates breaks the tackle and picks up extra yardage. Anthony's power and agility helped him advance down field throughout the season.



Coach Sam Scarborough

Making the way for Jerome King, Mike Tilton prepares to block the defender. Mike was quick on his feet and gave the Kellam Knight a blast of his stopping power.

Warming up to go on offense, Jamie Kline throws the ball to Joesph Hawthorne. Jamie's size and knowledge of the game helped him to keep the team moving ahead in every game.

Dropping back for the pass, Brett Vambell picks out his receiver and makes a successful throw to score against Kempsville. Brett maintained his passing precision throughout the season.

Varsity Field Hockey

Drive It To The Goal

Driving it to the goal were the Lady Patriot Field Hockey team all the way to winning the Regional Tournament. Key players, Janie Larned, Lauren Cryan, Jenny Bell, Stephanie Duvall, Andrea Fritelli, and Ashton O'Gorman contributed to the outstanding 8-1 record for the season. With nine seniors on the team, the girls were highly influenced with the desire and will to have a winning season. Coach Callahan commented," The team went way beyond their goal to make it into the Beach Tournament. I have never been so proud." Screaming their motto at each game, "You only get out of it what you put into it.", the girls kept their morale high. The team's most intense games were against arch-rival Cox and Princess Anne. However, with steadfast determination, the girls were successful in defeating both teams. Selected a Most Valuable Player was Janie larned and Most Improved Player was Stephanie Duvall.

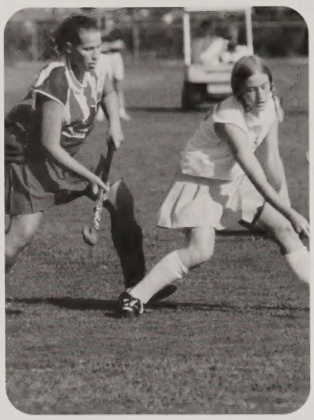
Celebrating after winning the Regional Championship game, the Lady Patriots group together in team victory. The girls ended the season with many victories including a much battled out victory over top-ranked Cox.

Coach Susan Callahan

Using complicated and tricky stickwork, Stephanie Duvall defends the ball from her opponent. Stephanie's ability to manuever her stick enabled her to keep the other players confused and surprised.

Racing up the field, Janie Larned sprints to the goal. Janie's fierce speed and determination allowed her to fly past many opponents and score numerous goals.

Being very aggressive and intimidating, Sylvia O'Conner quickly steps up to steal the ball. Sylvia was able to retrieve the ball and pass it on to a teammate resulting in a score.



In the blink of an eye, Megan Whitehurst steals the ball from a persistant opponent. Megan's motivation and diligence were key charachteristics to her successful game plays.

Dribbling the ball past an opponent, Brooke Blanchard is able to easily bring the ball to the goal. Brooke's quick thinking allowed her to challenge and defend even the most determined opponent.

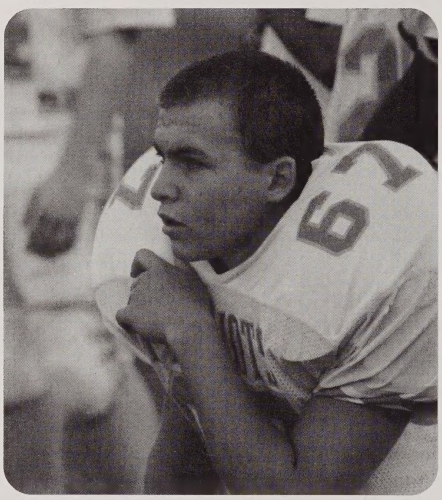
"We're Ready!"

Junior Varsity Football

Finishing with a 5-2 season, the Junior Varsity Football team proved they were always ready to do battle with the opposition. The team was comprised of several good running backs which helped them to acheive a number one status in defense. Adam Asvega and Eric Henry led the boys throughout the season and were both voted as Most Valuable Player. Selected as the team's Most Improved Player was Kyle Ringo. Najeeb Hamilton, Allen Sutton, Clifford Weddle, and Jeffrey Duke were the key starters at each game. "Beating Kellam 27-20 was the most memorable event of the season. The boys won the game with twenty seconds left on the clock" recalled Coach Leslie Benjamin. The team's traditional pre-game prayer by Coach Benjamin proved to not only bring them good luck but helped each player get their focus and confidence.

Breaking aroun the corner and looking for the endzone, Najeeb Hamilton goes in fo another touchdown. Najeeb's breakaway speed ensured him of making the score against Kellam.

Patiently waiting to take the field on offense, Kevin Brown watches with great intensity. In his sophomore year, Kevin brought not only experience as his contribution to the team but also advanced skills and determination.



With swift moves and great agility, Anthony Roulhac breaks for the first down. Anthony quick footwork allowed him to get around the Tallwood opposition.

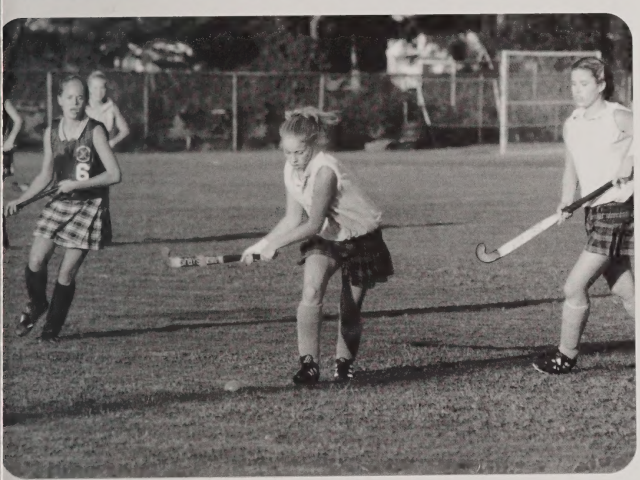
"Win Together"

Junior Varsity Field Hockey

Going for the goal, Morgan Sieg takes a powerful hit. Morgan drove the ball down field causing the Lady Cavaliers to scramble.

Hard work, fun and food fights unified the J.V. Field Hockey team. The girls worked through conditioning beginning in August through November and their efforts paid off as they placed second in the city behind Cox with a record of 7-1-1. Beating Bayside 2-1 with six seconds on the board was accomplished through the inspiration of their team cheers, "Win Together:" and "Who let the dogs out?", and their good luck charm, Ms. Courtney's daughter, Hunter. As they advanced the girls went on to play in a tournament in Poquson and won all of their games. The time there strengthened the team's unity and brought a bunch of memories with their many food fights. Key players Andera Aiken, Brittany Guido, Christie Herman, MVP Morgan Sieg, and most improved player, Diane Vigari all showed their determination to "Win Together!"



Retrieving the ball from the opposition, Melanie Sneadeker makes a strong drive up field. As a freshman, Melanie proved to bequite an aggressive player.

As she reaches for the ball, Rachael Piggott stops and steals it in time to keep Princess Anne from scoring. Rachael's strength and agility were her greatest assets.

Get a Grip

Gymnastics

Gripping the uneven bars and stepping carefully on the balance beam, the Gymnastics team continued to improve throughout the season. Selected as the Most Valuable Player was Brittany Schaefer while Kelly Schiller was selected as the Most Improved Player. The most memorable moment of the season came at the Green Run meet where the team received a first, second and third place. The team's strengths were mostly on the balance beam and the floor routines. The girls were unified and continuously gave each other support. Most of the new members performed better at each meet making the team overall stronger. The most challenging meets came against the state champs, Princess Anne, Kempsville, and Ocean Lakes.

Giving encouragement to each other before the meet, Senta Bittner and Aubry Wegener apply chalk on their hands while waiting their turn on the balance beam. Senta and Aubry found it important to exchange positive ideas before competition.

Coach Karen Tilton

Prancing in the air, Sarah Snedeker works through her floor routine. Sarah's floor routines contained difficult manuevers which enabled her to gain a few extra points from the judges.

With perfect form, Brittney Schafer does her beam routine seemingly with ease. Voted as the Most Valuable Player of the season, Brittney proved that she had developed her skill and ability to a very high level.

Using great balance, Kelly Shiller works the beam as she competes against Princess Anne. Kelly was able to add to the overall score allowing the team to win the meet.

Tumbling through the air, Becky Handforth dismounts from the beam. Becky's beam work and solid dismount contributed to the win against Green Run.

Jumping high in the air, Jamie Lance's gracefulness helped her succeed this year. Jamie used her skills to improve her performance in the floor routine.

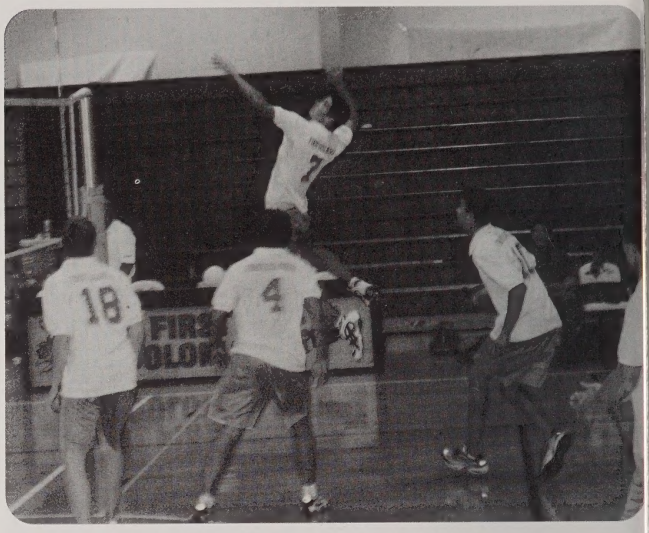
Boys' Volleyball

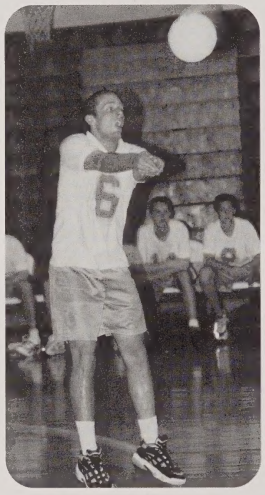
"Just bukie it!"

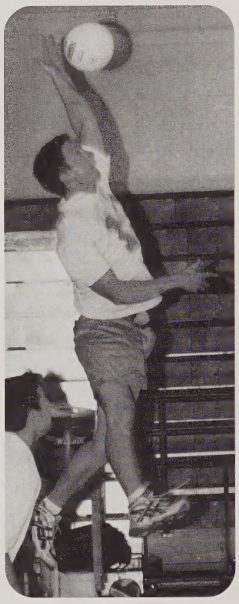
Eventhough it was the first year for both coaches and eleven of the fourteen players had never played volleyball before, it was a most successful season. Raymond Gayhart fiercely blocked a spike and then during another game Coach Gary Moore did a handstand on the sidelines for which he was almost yellow carded for delay of the game. The young, inexperienced team began racking up memories, and with their strong determination became better players as the season continued. Nathan King, Mike Maugeri, Pascal Arcese, Will Porter, and Aaron Shawnik were the key players. Nathan King was selected the team's Most Valuable Player and was awarded First Team Honors. Also Mike Maugeri and Chris Grulke were selected as the two Most Improved Players. Although five seniors will be graduating, the team will continue to "just bukie it" again for the 2001 season with the majority of the players returning.

Flying high to meet the ball, junior, Aaron Shawnik, sets up for a monster spike to shatter a late Ocean Lakes run. Aaron's timely offensive skills were his greatest attributes which kept the opposing teams alert.



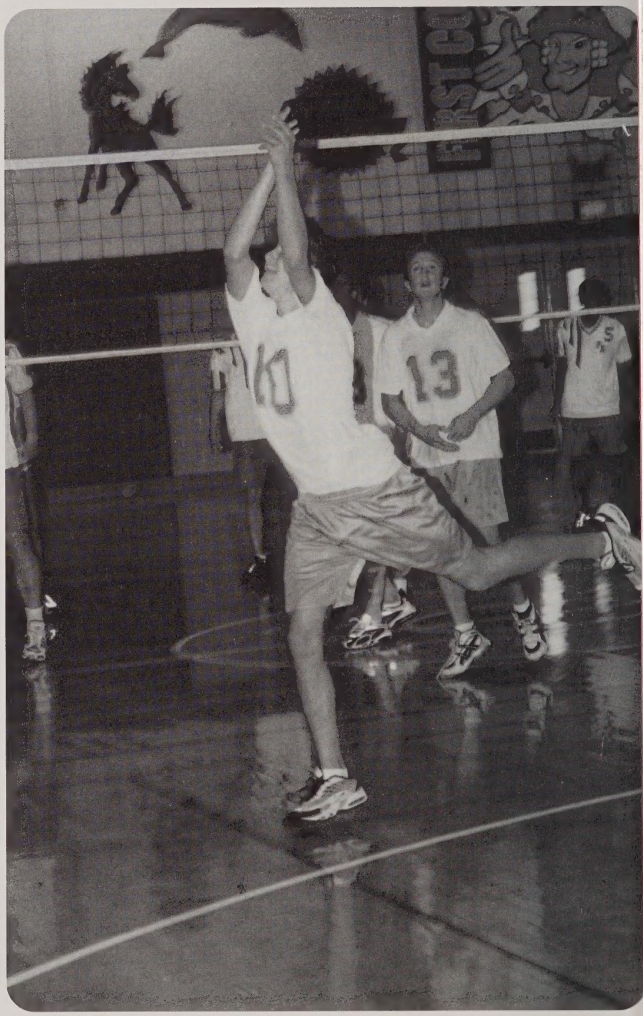
With perfect percision, co-captain, Pascal Arcese, passes a ball to go for the win. Pascal's clutch passing skills were the foundation of the Patriots signature late game runs.





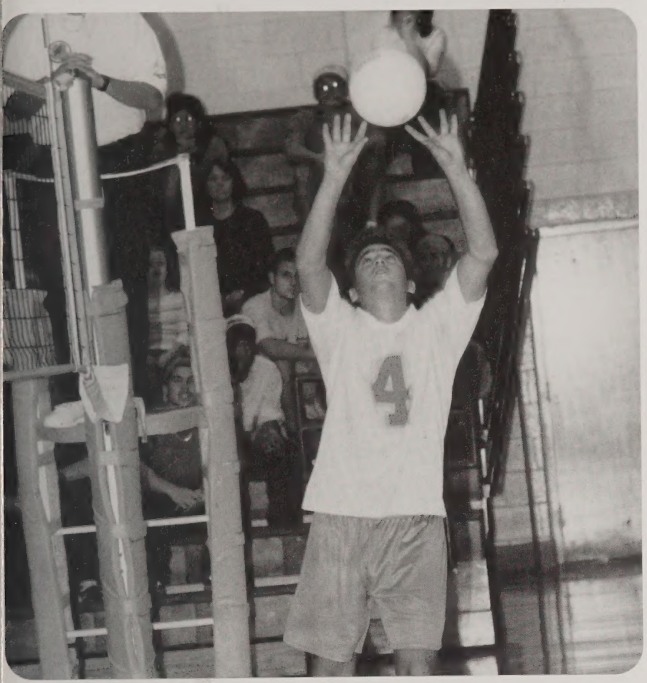
Jumping high to reach the ball, Nathan King displays a vertical leap of an incredible thirty-five inches. His massive fire power was an asset which helped build a secure offensive team effort.

Coach Gary Moore



With his hard taught knack for defense, Steve "Power Ranger" Hawley, sacrifices his body to keep the ball alive. He was able to set the ball for a team member who got it over the net to the Ocean Lakes Dolphins.

Receiving the serve from the Green Run Stallions, Most Improved Player, Mike Maugeri sets up the ball into the offensive play. His athleticism and strategic thinking launched him into the starting line-up.



Using their gritty skills, Will Porter and Aaron Shawnik team up to hault an Ocean Lakes offensive attack. Will and Aaron stopped the spike and sent the ball back for a no delivery.

Girls' Volleyball

Bump, Set, Spike

Proving they were champions, the Girls' Volleyball team spent this season at the top. Led by Michelle Mabie the MVP, and Carrie Burton who recieved the Coaches Award, the team also had Best Defensive Player Morghan Bosch and Best Student Athlete Kerry Turner. "There's a special chemistry that I haven't seen in any other group I've coached," says Coach Edie Magula. The girls had various pregame rituals like "The Shower Dance" and the "Superstar Dance"which made an interesting year even more exciting. The most memorable moment of the season was when they tied 2-2 against Douglas Freeman and were down 6-14 in the fifth game and came back to win. The confident girls, with their 20 game winning streak went to State Finals, played Mills Godwin and won making them District, Regional and State Champs! Summing up the season, Coach Magula remarked, "Wow!" The girls made their coach and school proud. The have left their mark and we will never forget them."

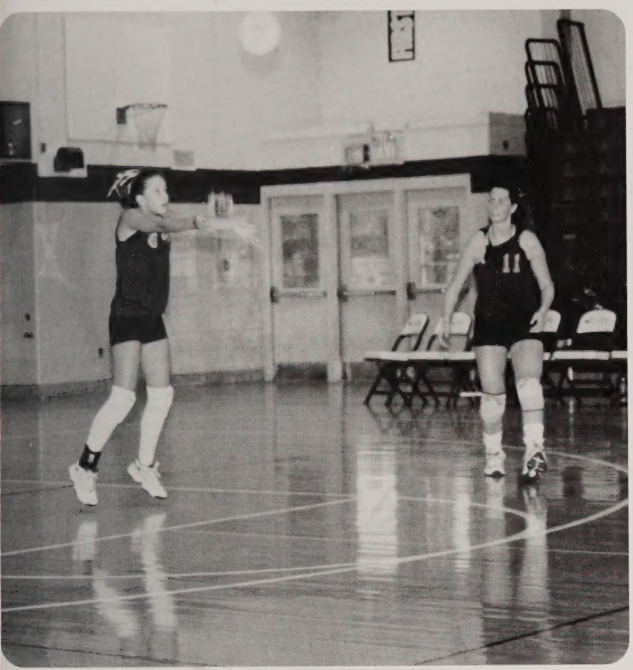
The starting line up does their regular pre-game warm-up before doing battle with the Kellam Knights. This was one ritual which proved to help the girls bond and become focused before each game.

Coach Edie Magula

Returning the serve from the Princess Anne attackers, Kerry Turner sets up her teammate for a spike. Kerry's agility helped her become one of the team's key players.

Waiting for the serve with intensity, Michelle Mabie and Mollee Farrell prepare to strike at the ball for another kill. Michelle's knowledge of the game helped her become selected as the team's Most Valuable Player.

Returning the serve from the Falcons, Nikki Fanning uses her strength to set the team up for a kill. Nikki's concentration helped to guide the team through a great season.



Striking the ball with force, senior Carrie Burton serves the ball for a spike. Carrie's strength and experience helped her to be very precise in executing effective serves.

Going up for the block, Meagan Weisert and Morgan Bosch use their defensive skills to gain another point. Defense was a deciding factor in the team's winning season.

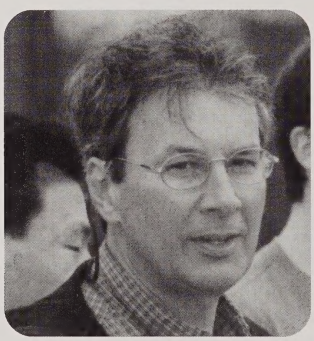
Clearing the Path

Winter / Indoor Track

As the Indoor Track team cleared the path at every turn, the team proved that their youthful enthusiasum as well as their hard work through the pre-season conditioning enabled them to advance in the field events. The key players were Ashley Ezell, Tuvara Rowe, Leah Hammond, James Schlitt, Kyle Naughton, Tyler Lovett, Tony Williams, Troy Goldie, Drew Short, and Alex Balcom. The most memorable time came early in the season with victories over Green Run and Princess Anne. Voted as the team's Most Valuable Player was Ashley Ezell. She qualified for State coming in second in the regional in the 3200 and fifth in the regional in the 1600 for running. Tuvara Rowe was selected as the Most Valuable Player for the field events and came in third in the district for shot put. Coach Kaminski summarized the season, "This year was a good building block for next year".

Exerting all his strength, R.J. Callis sprints between the two Ocean Lakes opponents in an attempt to capture first place. R.J.'s agility and positive attitude enabled him to keep a clear head and focus on the finish line.

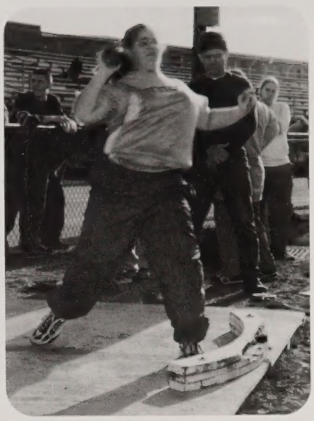
Soaring to new heights, Alex Balcom skillfully clears the bar with ease. Alex was a valuable newcomer and provided the team with high spirits.



Coach Kaminski

With a wide leap of faith forward, he displays great strength and agility. Passing the mark meant he could beat the opposition.

Stepping ahead of her opponents, Brittany Schaeffer quickly increases her lead. Brittany's incrediable endurence provided her with a win against Ocean Lakes.



Excerting all of her strength, Kristen Hall catapults the heavy ball. Kristen's shot put ability proved to be very successful at the meets.

Skillfully passing the baton, Troy Goldie quickly makes the pass to keep the relay team in the lead. Speed, endurance and careful timing were the components which kept the relay team in the fore-front.

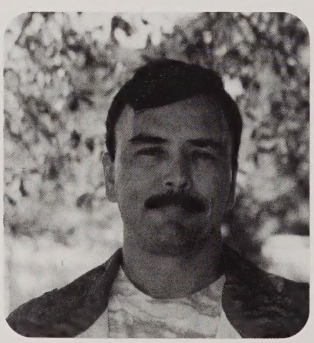
Cross Country

The Longest Mile

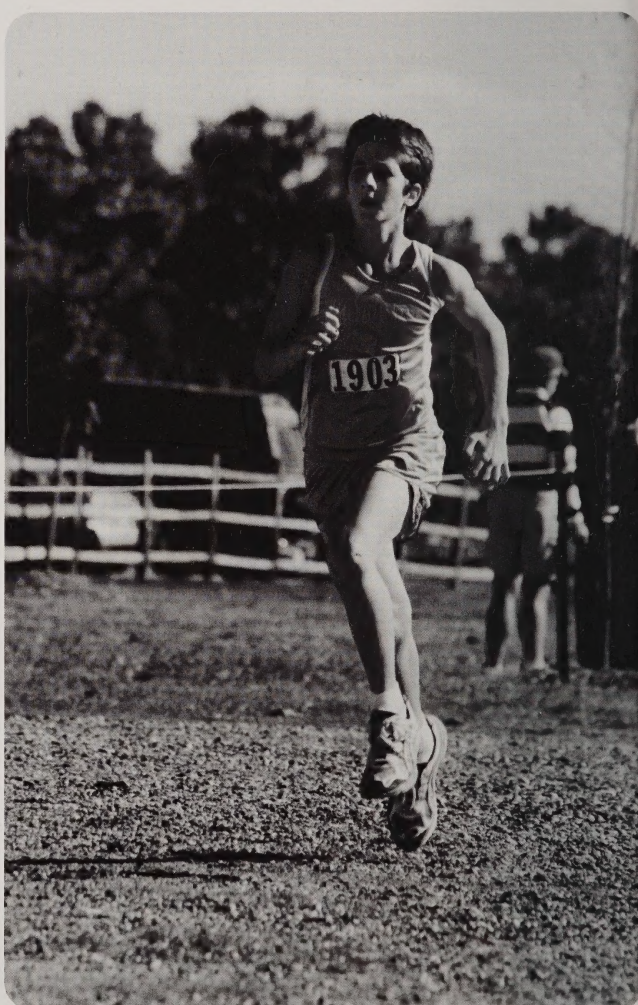
In early August, the Cross Country team members were spotted all along Great Neck and First Colonial Roads jogging and running the longest mile, or so it seemed. After several weeks of conditioning to build endurance and strength, the first meet was held at Mount Trashmore against several other schools. The closest meets were against Kellam, Kempsville, and Bayside with only a few points difference. During the season, the team demonstrated their strengths through pride and comaradorie. Selected as Most Valuable Players were Ashley Ezell, Gray Summs, Andrew Foster, Mark Emborski. Drew Carson was selected as the team's Most Improved Player. The most memorable moment was when Ashley Ezell earned All-State honors placing 10th at the State Championship Meet. Coach Bar commented, "I look forward to next season's team and watching Ashley Ezell make a run at the State title."

Blazing forward like a locomotive, senior, Andrew Crisp puts on the steam to surge ahead. Andrew was well known for his ability to come from behind in a race.



Coach Glenn Bar

Leading the pack in the five mile run, Rob Gordon hussles toward the finish line. Rob was a new member of the team and proved he could measure up to the others.



With one more mile to go, John Dunlap sticks out the tough odds. John kept up the pace throughout the grueling race.

unning up the hill, Andrew Foster takes the lead with Ashley Ezell close behind. The ve mile run was a long endurance test for all.

With aquiline super speed, Stephanie Salter blows by the competition. Stephanie worked hard and always made sure she was on the top of her game.

check me out. I am one hot runnin' mother shut yo mouth. Just kiddin. That was really gay I know. But seriously, just think. This could be you! Steph Going past another marker, seven of the boys keep up the pace. Beating out Kellam with only two points was a very sweet victory for the team.

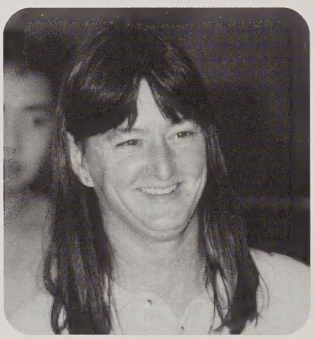
Beating the Clock

Swim Team

In order to beat the clock at each meet, the swim team maintained depth in the relays and kept a very positive attitude in all events. They began each meet with their team cheer, "FC's What??" Voted as the team's most valuable swimmers were: Steven Hawley, Michael Maugeri, Gray Summs, Andrew Crisp, Lauren McHorney, Janie Larned, Lindsay Radermacher, Kerry Turner, and Andrea Barney. Selected as the Most Improved Swimmers were: Steven Summs, Nate King, and Christine Roberts. Renee Schreiber, Carley Brennan, Jennifer Schmitz, Stephanie Salter, Note Narkprasert, Bryan Birkner and Brian Lantz were other athletes who contributed greatly. The most memorable moment of the season was at the head shaving pasta party and the practice with the seven freshmen boys. As for the most intense or challenging game, it was always being able to beat Cox. This was the first year the team had more boys than girls for a total of 28 speedo's!

Gasping for air, freshman Jon Hawley slices through the water. Jon excelled in his free-style stroke throughout the season.



Coach Kim McCanna

Going the distance, senior Nathan King charges the wall to gain the seconds he needs to advance to the regional tournament. Even though it was Nathan's first year on the team, he excelled in the butterfly event.

Tucking into a tight ball, Kerry Turner rotates inward for a perfect ten. Kerry was a great addition to the Patriot dive team.

Goofing around by the pool, Note Narkpresert, Peter Hammer, Nathan King, Nick Cruit, and Andrew Lantz enjoy a few minutes between events. Playing dress up was one of Nick's favorite ways to pass time.

Pushing and pulling his way through the water, junior Sam Silverman accelerates toward the wall. Sam has been on the team for the past three years, and has greatly improved his breaststroke.

Listening to the crowd cheering her on, senior Lauren McHorney thrives on the cheers her teammates provide. Lauren has been on the team since her Freshman year, and will definitely be missed next season.

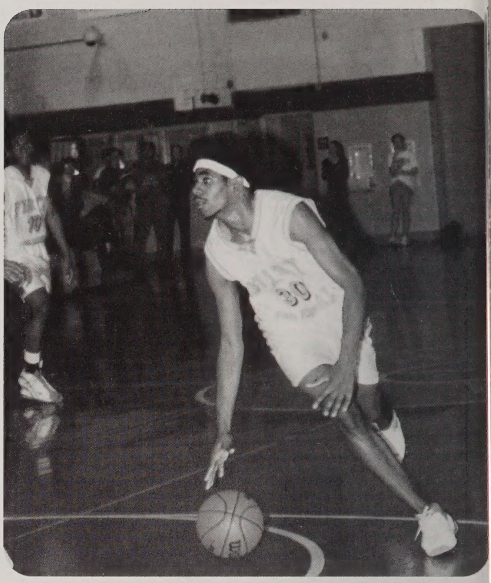
Varsity Basketball

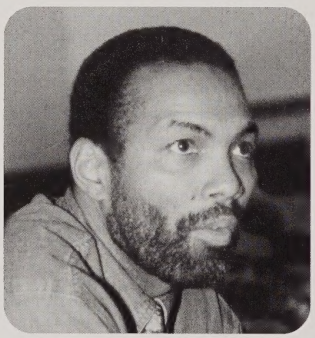
Take it to the Hoop

Coming back and beating Bayside after being down by fifteen points, the Varsity Boys' basketball team proved they could take it to the hoop everytime. The team's key players were: Dante Terry, Jeff Severinghaus, Aaron Rouse, Jabbar Spellman, Darrel Monroe, and Chris Taylor. Coach Mark Butts commented, " All three games against Kellam were our most challenging". Selected as the Most Valuable Player was Dante Terry and the Most Improved Player was Jeff Severinghaus. The Patriot men were perceived as intimidating due to their large height size when compared to the other teams. The teams' cheer was "The respect Tour", and their good luck charms were their new jerseys with blue numbers. An unusual occurence during the season was when Severinghaus banked a 21 footer against P.A., got fouled and claimed he meant to do it. When asked about next season, Coach Butts replied, "I am really looking forward to next year".



With a vicious cross over, Jabar Spellman cripples the Kellam defenders. Jabar's quick moves and nice jumps advanced the ball down court where the boys racked up another two points.

Before the game starts the Patriots gather around for a pre-game inspirational talk. Pep-talks helped the team prepare and focus for each game.

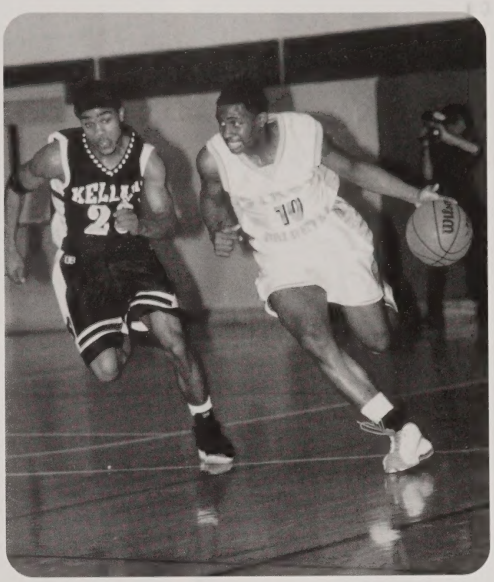


Coach Mark Butts

Using a pivot foot to his advantage, Shannon Mitchell looks to feed the ball into the paint. Shanon and his teammates capitalized on big points by giving their big guys a chance for an easy two.

Using his ups Jeff Serveringhouse snags another board. Jeff's rebounding and deadly jumpshot made him the team's "Go-to guy".

Sprinting past a defender, Dante Terry pushes the ball upcourt for a fast break. Dante's intensity and quick moves successfully kept the Kellam Knights from scoring.



Cutting through the opposition, Mark Reynolds makes his way upcourt. Mark was able to keep the ball moving and pass it off.

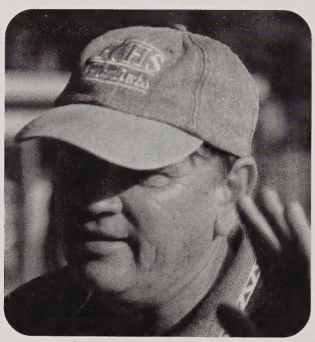
Making a Fast Break

As the girls aggressively advanced down the court, they kept their opposition well behind them on the scorboard for the entire season. Led by Coach Larry Bowman, and assistant coaches Dan Brown and Don Phillips, the girls progressively gained strength, endurance and learned new game play strategies. Selected as the Most Valuable Player was Kitara McMoore and Becca McLain and the key starters were Kim Butts and Courtney Seamon. Most Improved Players were Courtney Seamon and Christina Nieves. Assistant coach Don Phillips remarked, " The most memorable moment of the season was when the girls won the District Championship." The team's strengths of good chemistry and unselfishness allowed them to win twenty-two games during the season. Coach Bowman remembered, " The most intense and challenging game was against Princess Anne. I'll never forget it because the girls truly displayed their fast breaking abilities."

Using her strong defensive tactics, Amber Roberts guards her opponent keeping her from scoring. Amber's intimidation techniques kept the opposition busy throughout the season.



Coach Larry Bowman

Looking to make an inside pass, Courtney Seamon spots her teammate. Courtne exercised her wonderful ability in setting up the plays.

As Trish Stolle attempts to block the throw, she reaches as high as possible. During the season, Trish was always a formidable blocker.

Outmaneuvering her opponent, Kim Butts displays strength and skill in getting the ball set up for a score. Kim was successful in helping the team add two more points.

With much confidence, Latoya Smith takes her foul shot. Latoya was known for her shooting ability.

As Coach Bowman points out the positioning, the girls on the bench discuss some strategy. Concentration and encouragement fromt he bench helped the Lady Patriots pull throught for thier first district win since 1978.

Laying It Up

J. V. Boys' Basketball

The boys experienced a very successful year by having the best regular season record they had seen in the last four years. Returning veterans Charles Watrus, defensive stopper Anthony Checcio, and sharp shooter Mike Davis, got the team off to a quick start. Selected as the Most Valuable Player was Darryl Monroe, and the Most Improved Players were Anthony Checchio and Mike Davis. The most memorable moment of the season was when Anthony Checchio held Kempsville's leading scorer to only two points! The team's main strength was the speed each boy possessed. Coach Lane remarked, "I'm very proud of the boys ending the season with the best record for the past four years." While the boy's cheer was "Just Win!" their good luck charm was cheerleader Lauren Cranfield.

Breaking the suffocating Kellam press, Charles Watris uses his speed and ball handling abilities. Charles' timely offensive moves made him one of the key players the opposition always watched and studied.

Throwing a deceptive pump fake, Tyrone Crowely uses his feel for the game to freeze his defender right before he drops in another jump shot. Tyrone's effective outside touch opened up the post game for the Patriots.

Using his inside touch Doug Stumborg switches to his left hand to hit the tough lay-in. Doug's on the block versatility was essential to the team's post offensive game.

Sharp Shooters

J. V. Girls' Basketball

Stopping quickly to set up for a shot, #23 sinks another surprise jumper. Her quick shooting skills proved to be an important asset throughout the season.

The Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball team was led by Coach Dan Brown who enjoyed his first year with the girls. The girls began conditioning in early October by running the track around the football field, lifting weights to build strength, and practicing shooting hoops and drilling plays on the court. Throughout the season, the team comprised of mostly ninth graders, continued to make improvement with their on-court strategies. Key players were: Jackie Traub, Krytal Bridgers, and Latoya Jones. With their team spirit cheer, they began each game in a high state of enthusiastic energy which helped them score points as the adrenaline pumped through their veins. Coach Dan Brown remarked, "These are a great bunch of girls, and I'm proud to have had the opportunity to work with them. I'm looking forward to next season."

Racing down the court, #12 breaks away fast for a layup. Her quick speed helped the team out greatly, during the season, when the score was close.

Gathering up in a huddle, the girls rally themselves up with a cheer. Spirit cheers helped the girls get psyched for the next quarter.

Dance Team

Moving to the Beat

The Lady Patriotetts began the year with a bang by adding seven new members to the team from the May audition. Wowing the audiences at each performance, the girl's proved their hard work at creating, practicing, and cleaning each routine. They practiced twice a week at Jean Wallace Studios with their professional choreographer, Lisa Wallace-Midgett, where they learned new routines to be performed either the same or the following week. Tri-captains Monica Lorenzo, Kirsten Samdahl, and Casey Kirsten Samdahl, and Casey Guadagnini welcomed the new members with their version of team initiation. The rookies had to dress up in amusing outfits such as tutu's or costumes from previous performances. The next day they had to wear signs that were made the night before at the Lorenzo's house all around school. Some of the more memorable moments included the first annual Polar Bear Car Wash, sleepovers at the Samdahl's House, and the electroshock treatment before a game one night.

Rehearsing "Push It" for the Homecoming Pep-Rally, the girls work exceptionally hard to make sure that this dance is perfect. Running through each piece at least three times enabled the team to gain confidence in their dance, and made sure that each move was as precise as it could be.

Senior Night, held on February 9, was a special time that honored the senior athletes for their accomplishments and wished them success for the future.

In the middle of a routine during the Kellam basketball game, Alison Dobson and Lauren Zalaskus move to the music. Rhythm and coordination were important for synchronization.

Showing off their skills, the team, in perfect formation, performs synchronized forte leaps. Each member had an extensive amount of dance background in order to be on the team.

Captain Monica Lorenzo displays her team spirit at the First Annual Polar Bear Car Wash held in mid-December. Temperatures dropped to the mid-twenties, but she braced the weather and wore a bikini underneath her poster to advertise the car wash.

Posing for a quick picture before heading to the field at the Homecoming Pep-Rally, the dance team waits anxiously to start their well-anticipated performance, "Push It." Team camaraderie played an important part in their success, as the girls' became friends both on-and-off the stage.

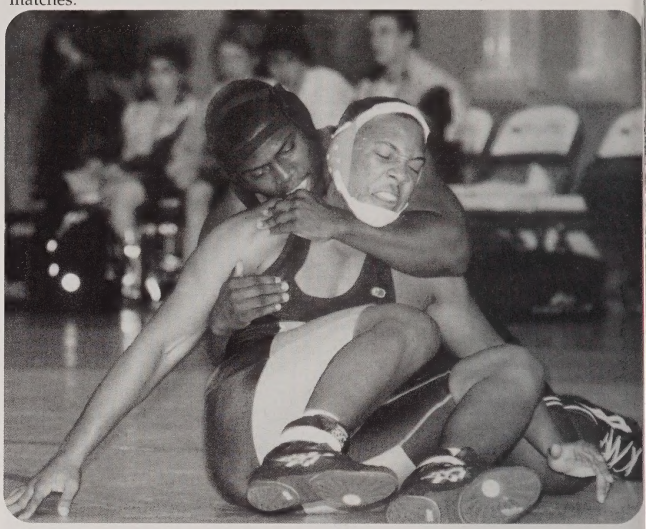
Varsity Wrestling

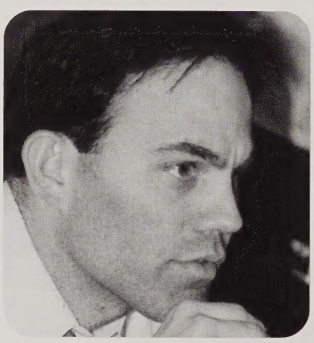
Reversing the Hold

For the Varsity Wrestling team, Coach Chris Runzo began his first year with the team instructing them on reversing the hold. The boys spent countless hours of their free time to improve skills and build strength. The team was known for their strong work ethic and dedication. The most memorable moment was the first tournament of the season in Richmond when the guys got together and bleached their hair. Coach Runzo commented, "A big part of their success was the team unity and how the guys were always cheering each other on." The team's moto for the season was "Build Character." And they did just that. Coach Runzo named Anthony Frates the Most Valuable Player, who also placed eighth in the state tournament. With his strength and dedication, Ryan Manion was named the Most Improved Player. Mark Barney, Phillip Stephan, and Kevin Mayfield were also recognized for being key team players.

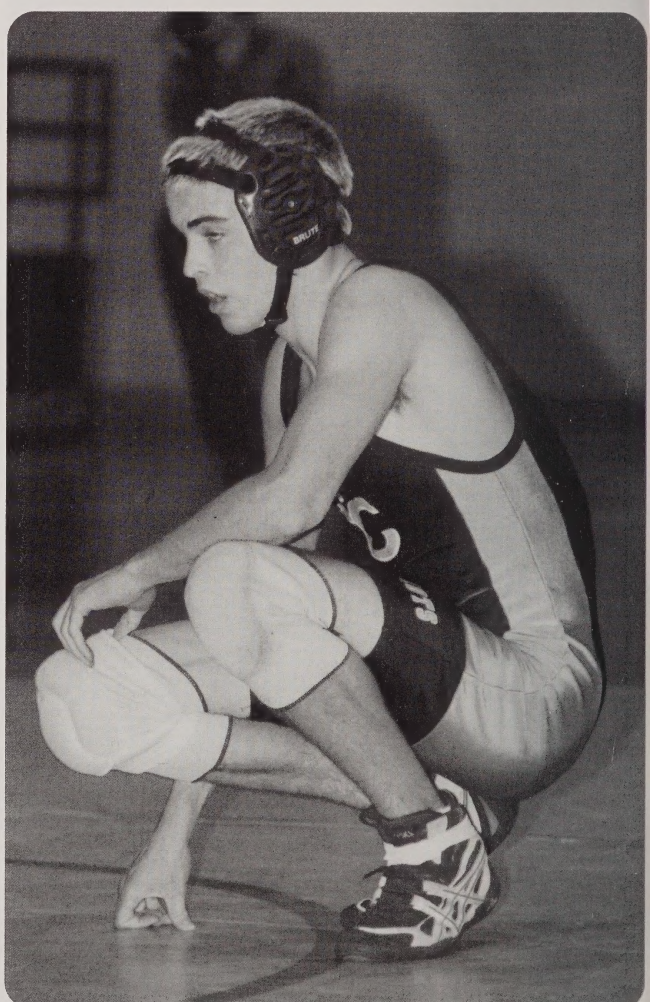
Spinning for the reversal points, Kevin Mayfield uses his momentum to turn on his opponent. Kevin's awesome leg power enabled him to start and win most of the matches.



Powering down on his opponent, Chris McLaughlin uses his agility to keep the opponent down. Chris was a key player and won the majority of his matches.

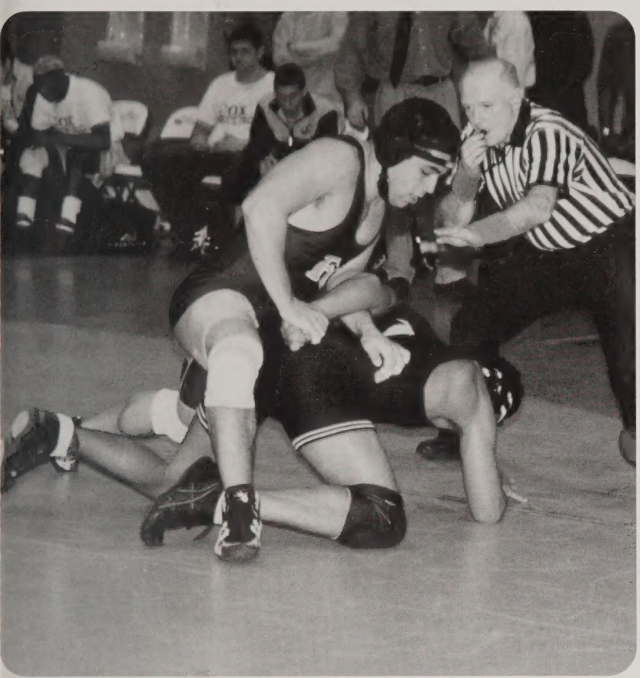


Coach Chris Runzo



Taking a breath after the first period, Mark Parney relaxes and stratigizes. Mark's knowledge and power proved to be a great asset to his success.

Putting the reversal on his opponent, Anthony Frates flips his man and pins him for the win. Frates' strength and power helped him to come in eighth in the state tournament.



Executing a half-nelson, Phillip Stephen turns his opponent and gets the pin. Phillps' strength and agility helped him and the team through the season.

Using his momentum, Mark Barney flips the Kellam opponent to secure the win. Mark was a key team player and finished the season with grace and agility.

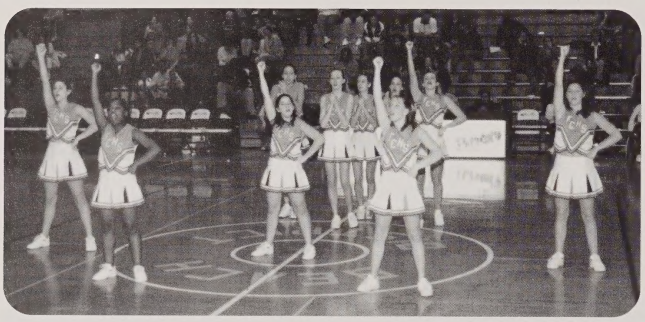
Varsity Cheering

No Sweat!

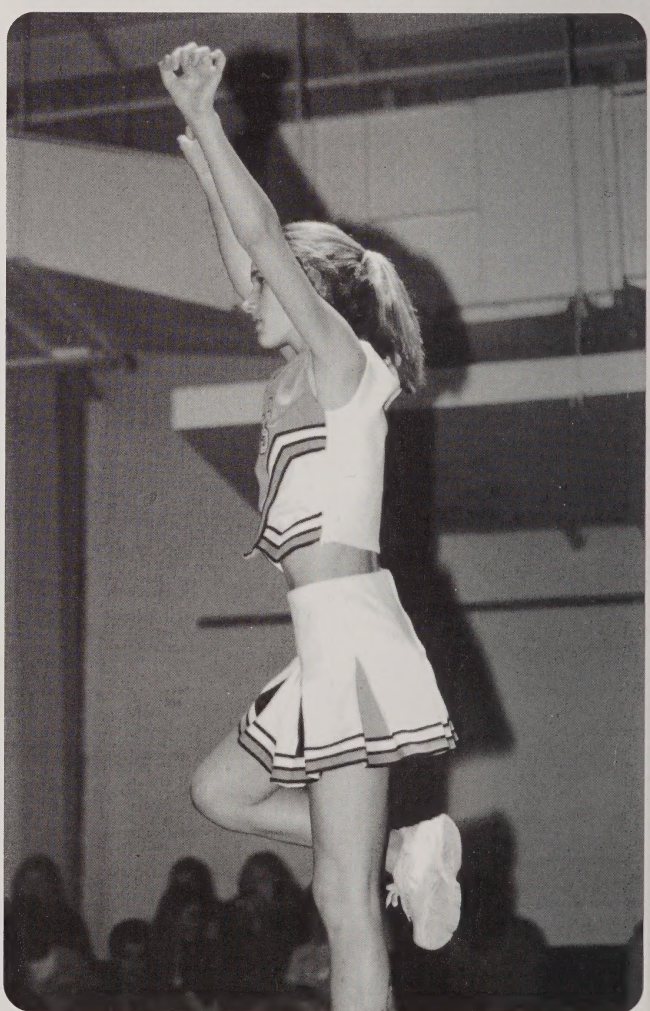
The Varsity Cheerleaders had quite a year having gained a new coach as well as new team members. Tri-captains Meredith Mobley, Marquita Bates and Devan MacConnell were willing to put in many hours of their spare time in order to ease the transition. Starting in June, the girls practiced three days a week throughout the summer conditioning for the difficult stunts that would be performed throughout the year. In July they attended a rigorous cheering camp where they worked from sunrise to sunset to perfect their crowd appealing stunts and routines. Creating posters and signs for every game, the Varsity Cheerleaders inspired the team and led on the spectators with enthusiastic energy that lit up the scene. Proving that cheering was no sweat for them, they continuously pepped up the crowd.

Dazzling the audience, the girls perform yet another flawless cheer. The cheerleader's long night practices helped them amaze the audience to a deafening silence.



At the home basketball game against Kellam, the cheerleaders perform for numerous fans. The team continued to amaze the crowd with each and every performance.

Smiling for the camera, Marquita Bates, Meredith Mobley, Katie Patton, Lauren Cranfield, Amanda Miller, Alicia Boone, Christine Moreira and Erica Lee cheer on the team. The girls grew to be best friends through all the times shared.



Rising above the crowd, Amanda Miller hits her liberty pose with perfection. Amanda spent many hours practicing this stunts with the other girls which proved to pay off when they hit the court.

Showing their team spirit, Meredith Mobley and Alicia Boone give it their all. Meredith and Alicia's enthusiasm helped give the rest of the girls morale through this difficult transitioning year.

Inspiring the crowd, Devan MacConnell, Meredith Mobley and Alicia Boone cheer on as the football players continue to dominate their opponents. The cheerleaders drew a lot of attention and responses from the crowd with their cheers.

Showing off their stuff, the girls amaze the crowd with their musical hip-hop routines. Performing cheers was an important goal for the squad this year.

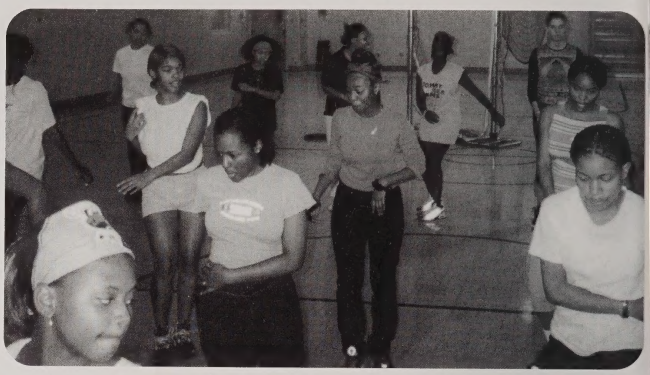
Keeping in step

Step Team

As they kept in step, they also kept the crowd revved up during half-time at the basketball games. The Step Team was new this year and all of the moves took getting used to. However, excellent leadership from some key members like Lameka Owens, Katrice Violet, Terrel Wallace, Taneka Harris and captain Nadijah Abdul-Kahaliq helped the other girls along the way. The team may have had a short season, but they have still had their share of embarrassing moments. During a performance at one of the home basketball games, two of the girls' pants tore in the middle of the performance, but they had no choice except to keep going. The Step Team's most intense challenge came during the home basketball game against Bayside. "This was our first season- we have faced many challenges." says new coach Mrs. Donna Stevens.

With much concentration, the girls work on their next routine. Long hours of practice in the small gym paid off when they hit the court.



Keeping in sync, the girls wow the crowd with another performance. The Step team's fast moves and coordination were clear demonstrations of their abilities.

Watching carefully, the girls learn a new step at practice. Coach Donna Stevens oversaw the practice sessions and helped to motivate the girls throughout the routines.

Spirit Check

J. V. Cheering

Encouraging the team before the next play, Christy Reindholt, Julie Clay, Marie Kobb, and Mary Blake Bolander are syncronized in their motions. The girls spent many long hours rehearsing routines for the big game, and it showed in every step that they took.

After tryouts last May, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders held practices throughout the summer. In July, the girls attended a four day cheering camp at William and Mary University in Williamsburg sponsored by the Universal Cheer Association. They learned dance routines, stunts and new cheers, and enjoyed receiving the leadership award at the end of the camp. Christie Ropero commented, "This was my first year to cheer for a school, and I really enjoyed learning new cheers and cheering for the football games which were the best." The squad also acquired a new coach, Mrs. Sherri Markovitch who taught at Corporate Landing Middle School. With the expert leadership of tri-captains Tra'cee Rowe, Tessa Markovitch, and Jessica DePriest, the squad continued to improve. Throughout the season, it was obvious these girls had a real spirit check.

Cheering "Get Fired Up!" from the sidelines, the girls help boost the Boy's Junior Varsity Basketball team to victory. This squad showed they had plenty of encouragement and spirit to fire up the crowd and the team.

Spurring on the crowd, the cheerleaders' energetic chants help to gain a high level of intensity between the players and the audience. Spectator participation helped to keep up the morale and spirit of the team while on the field.

With strength and concentration, Christy Reinholdt, Emily Strite, Mary Blake Bolander lift Sonia House into the air, while Marie Kobbe cheers the team to victory. Strength, conditioning, and daily routine practices enabled the girls to perform difficult stunts that kept the audience entertained.

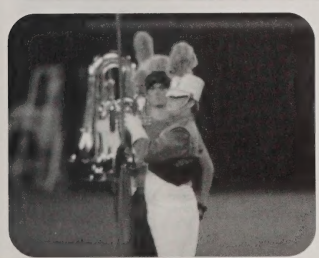
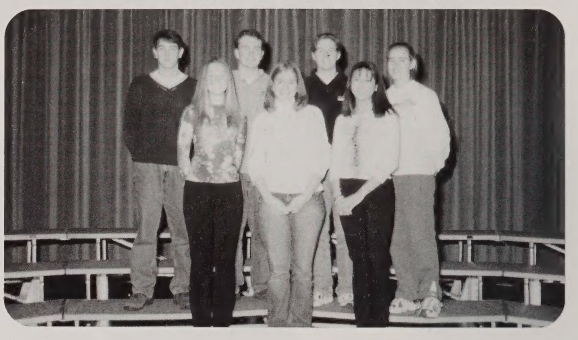
Center: Hitting the high notes, the flute section compliments the synchronized rhythm of the drums.



With great precision Peter Kemp measures fabric which will soon be transformed into a costume. Peter's hard work helped his team capture a first place finish in regionals.

Taking a break from costume designing, the team picks out the music they will use at competition. Costume decisions were a crucial part of each competition.



Destination Imagination (O.M.)

FIRST ROW: Leigh Matchett, Natalie Klinkenburger, Ashley Moy SECOND ROW: Peter Kemp, Thomas Marquis, Barbara Besal, Stephanie DuVall

Surfriders

FIRST ROW: Chris Pemberton, Jon Ankers, Sponser J. Kole SECOND ROW: Jeff Mingin, Ainslee Wallace, Joe Peebles

With much concentration and care Barbara Besal and Thomas Marquis cut wood to build their set. They're dedication helped all team members reach their goals.

What We Do Best

What's best about public speaking?

" Public speaking prepares you for speeches in college."

Kate Barcus, 12

"Public Speaking is great preperation for college."
-Nadijah Abdul-Khaliiq, 12

" Public Speaking gets you the girls."

Andy Hoadley, 12

"Public speaking is great preperation for whatever may come in the future"

Mark Reynolds, 12

Saying the Honor Society pledge, the new inductees are sworn in. Each fall some of the top students fill out applications to be in NHS, the lucky few who make it find out in December.

Sc Aynsley- A-Dawg. Whazzup? What can I say, this year has kicked some serious ass. Well at least we did. I am so glad we have been hanging out and stuff. Ass dawgs rule forever! But seriously, we had so much fun this year I'm almost sad it's over. Well almost. But I know we will have a blast this summer, hanging out at the beach and such. And I know you will learn to love running! Well hopefully you will because I sure don't wanna drag yo butt for 3 miles. But we will definitly be hangin' out at Alanton pool. Si, Si. A little bit of spanglish there. Hey, make sure that we go to the beach alot this summer so I can master my skimboarding technique. Because Im so good! Not! Well I know we will have lotsof fun this summer and nextyear. Well as always, Peace, Love and abstinence!

COLOPHON

The 2000-2001 edition of the Heritage contained 228 pages and was published by Jostens Printing and Publishing, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Josten's representative was Mr. Kelly Morgan. Lifetouch National School Studios took all the club, faculty, sports, and underclassmen portraits. Prestige Studios took all senior portraits. Fonts used in this book were as follows: palotino was used in all body copy and captions; garamon bold for the folio tabs; impact for all division pages; and nuptual script for senior superlatives. Color was used in the opening, student life and senior sections. One page of parental display of affection was in color. Tool lines, gray screens, and rounded corners were used in all sections. Artwork for the folio tabs helped carry the theme throughout the book.

Aynsley- (chimbo)
hey babe! this year was great! I had so much fun w/ you & Lauren during soccer season & at the happening place (808). can you believe that it's all over. we have so major freshman memories.

HERITAGE STAFF

Can you believe that we got out of going to that party

w/ Andy & Erin. We were so nervous about going & had to think of all those lies. HAHAHA.

Then "A PICTURE'S WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS"
when they took us horse back riding, that was fun but it smelled really bad. oh yeah & the mini-pancakes, those things were great, we have to do that again, they were way better than normal ones. Have you eaten any "Little White Men"? lately? We really have to get together a lot this summer Stephanie & Lauren too. I can't wait to go to some of those WILD parties w/ Jenn & Becca, those will be fun. Never forget the

"FAT MAN IN A LITTLE COAT" hahaha. oh yeah, or when we went
+ played in the puddles before the Kellem game night club
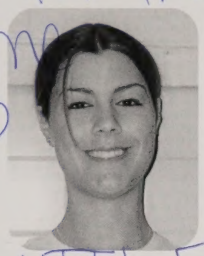
van + of



+ the
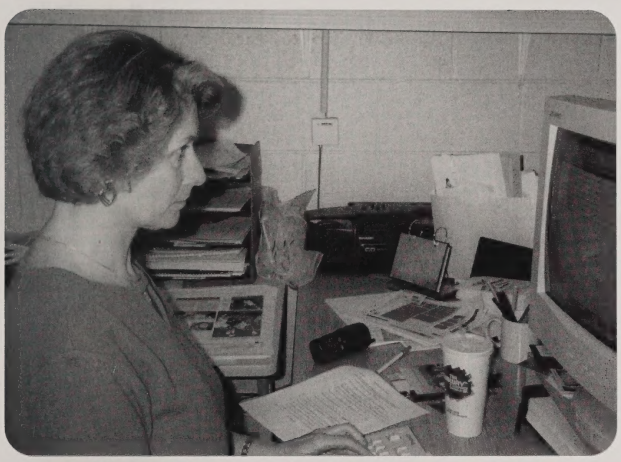
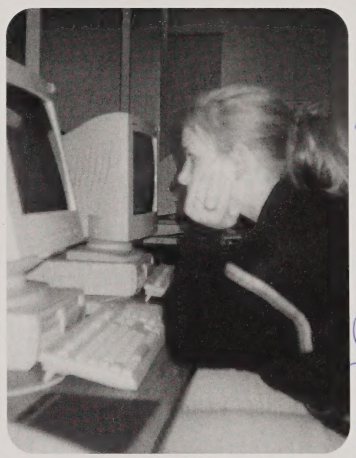
course

HEY LITTLE BAXTER!!! hahaha





oh yeah, when we WORKED the guys in b-ball before our game. They were scared to play us again.. I'll never forget our water fights or me leaving the keys in the door. okay well I will see you this weekend at sand soccer. We have to do a lot of stuff this summer, sn-scrcrzyl4 4968225. Later Chimbo. ♡always- cha. Cailin

Here We Go Again

We don't know where we're going But, we sure know where we've been.
Hanging on the promises in songs of yesterday, an' we've made up our minds,
We ain't wasting no more time But, here we go again, Here we go again.

Here we go again on our own, Going down the only road we've ever known.
Like a drifter we were born to walk alone. An' we've made up our minds,
We ain't wasting no more time.

Aynsley,

Hey! This year has been so much fun! I loved coming to your lockes for 'a great time' haha ~ have fun this summer!

Aynsley,

This year was so much fun. I loved having P.E. with you. Have a great summer and see you next year. K.I.T. 463-7330

always Ashley Perry

We must go to the beach together sometime during the summer. Go over to Drew's house so I can ball you up and after I beat you, I want to fight you. I want to see you running w/ Stephanie in my neighborhood. I know what you want so here it is... 481-3315.

Aynsley ~
hey girl-
Im so glad I got to know you this year! You are such a cool chic! haha Remember all the good memories in PE, nail stories, bball, haha - some better than others. Have a hot summer and we should hang out!

Aynsley,

Hey hotty whats up? this year has been awesome!! I'm so glad we got together ~~and~~ well not together but to know eachother really good. I wish we would have gone out but hey there's always next year, maybe? I hope we do some bodyboarding together this summer that would be Awesome! You are so hott! We have been through a lot and come a long way together. I hope that we go a little further sumtime. You are awesome I am so happy that we met this year. I hope we stay in touch over the summer cuz I don't want to grow apart from you in any way what so ever. I should be getting a car this summer so you might just see me cruising the strip and if you do you better say hi! I regret never hanging out with you outside of school at all this year, I really wish we would have. Aynsley you are hott as hell! I'm sorry that I never realized that you liked me when I was trying to hook up with carin I wish I would have because I think we would have been together still to this Day! Cuz I knew I wouldn't have Broken up with you! You already know how I feel about you so there is no use in telling you again. I'm sorry if I ever bothered you about that stuff. You know I Love you! well words run short but my feelings never will for you But I'm going end it there. I just want you to know that you have made an Impact on my life that will never fade. I cant wait to see you in a Bikini! woo hoo. You are already a Knock out and by senior year every guy will be trying to get with you! But I g2g Bye Baby
